Irgun Threatens To Hang Other Britons Caught

PARIS (AP)—British soldiers in future will be tried and executed by Irgun Zvai Leumi as soon as they are captured, a leader of the Jewish underground organization said today in a press conference.

He said Sergeants Clifford Martin and Mervyn Paice, found hanged in Palestine last Saturday, were "known to be guilty of anti-espionage in civilian dress."

He would not enumerate others on Irgun's death list. When asked about Gen. Sir Evelyn Barker, former British commander in Palestine, the Irgun leader said "he has an account to be settled."

The Irgun leader said "We are going to try to avoid an open clash with Hagana," another Jewish underground organization, but added, "we will fight on two fronts if necessary." He said Hagana had become the police dog of the British "invader," adding:

"The Hagana is today what the Vichy government was yesterday—collaborators."

He said the hangings of Paice and Martin were in "no way to be construed as reprisal. The two Britons were hanged for their own sins."

JEWISH BANK ROBBERED

JERUSALEM (AP)—Eight young Jews, including a girl, killed a Jewish official and wounded the Jewish manager of Barclay's Bank in Haifa today and escaped with $5,200.

The fresh violence came after the Jewish underground issued a statement saying "we have not yet settled our hanging account with the British." They threatened new hangings.

Last week two young British sergeants, kidnapped and held hostage for two weeks, were hanged in a forest preserve near Natanya, after being strangled and bled to death from wounds cut by thin, knotted ropes.

The Barclay Bank official shot to death today had resisted the Jewish bandits. The bank manager was beaten until he opened the money box. Witnesses said the robbers escaped in a taxi.

Crowds outside the bank first tried to stop the escape, but dispersed when shots were fired into the air.

2 Missing Launches Object Of Search

VANCOUVER (CP)—A Provincial Police patrol boat and an R.C.A.F. crash boat left here today to scour the treacherous waters off Point Atkinson for trace of a yawl and a motor launch, both reported in distress in that area.

Cyril Hillier notified police late Sunday night that he saw both craft in difficulty. A 25-mile-an-hour wind was blowing at the time. He said a number of persons aboard the yawl appeared to be in a panic.

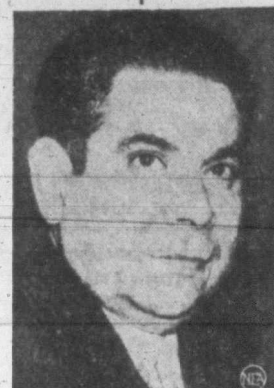

C. L. Palmer reported seeing both boats also, and later spotted floating debris, including lunch boxes. Police were checking to find if the craft were towed to some point with no outside contact.

Pact Directed Against Greece

LONDON (Reuters)—A Foreign Office spokesman said this afternoon the pact between Bulgaria and Yugoslavia concluded this week-end is the first since the war's end between a former enemy power and a wartime ally and the first to be directed not against Germany but against Greece, an allied country.

The spokesman said the pact contained reference to current frontier incidents with Greece, to the investigation of that situation by a United Nations' committee and to existing friction with the Greek government. At the foreign office the pact was interpreted as marking a turning-point in postwar history.

Paraguay President Flees As Fighting Circles Capital

GEN. HIGINIO MORINIGO

BUENOS AIRES (Reuters)—Gen. Higinio Morinigo, president of Paraguay, has fled Asuncion, capital of Paraguay, as bloody fighting in the five-month-old civil war spread around the city from the nearby naval base of Vinas Cue, reports from the Argentine-Paraguay frontier said today.

The destination of Morinigo, who was accompanied by his cabinet, was not known.

LATEST

Bomb Blasts Hotel

VIENNA (AP)—Two bombs exploded today in a small basement room of the Sachers Hotel, a transient hotel for high British officers.

A spokesman for the British area commander, told a press conference no one was injured and that damage was less than $400.

May Cut Resources

PARIS (Reuters)—France expects to be deprived of two-thirds of her sterling resources if the British government cuts the amount which tourists can take abroad from £75 to £25 ($300 to $100) a year, as has been suggested in reports here.

This view was expressed today in the Paris evening paper, Paris Presse, which published an article on Britain's economic position under the headline: "Churchill 1940, blood, tears and toil. Attlee 1947, restriction, misery and labor."

3 Seamen Escape

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two British seamen are at large today and another is back in the hands of customs officials after all three escaped from the third floor of the Immigration Building here shortly after midnight Saturday.

Tried To Cash In

Cashing in on the headlines that tell of the lavish parties tossed by Howard Hughes' agent, Johnny Meyer, 15-year-old Glen Cordes (right) signed in at the Hotel Continental in Chicago as "Howard Hughes and family," was assigned penthouse rooms at $40 a day, ordered a chauffeur-driven Cadillac for a ride, after which he ordered $75 worth of steak dinners for friends, with champagne to top it off. The bubble burst when the hotel manager discovered that Howard Hughes has no son and is not even married. At left is John Nalenzy, 15, one of the youths on the party. Glen's parents have promised to make good to the hotel.

Tea Up 12 Cents A Pound, Further Increase Hinted

General rise of 12 cents a pound on the wholesale price of tea, went into effect today, according to Carron E. Jameson of W. A. Jameson Coffee Co. Ltd. of Victoria, who indicated that a further rise in tea was anticipated.

Spokesman for one large retail store, said that they would not put up the price on the tea stocks on hand, but any stock purchased at the advanced price would sell at the new price. Whether the consumer will pay the advanced price immediately, will depend upon the grocers but according to wholesalers, heavy buying of tea since the first hint of a price rise, has left them with little surplus on hand.

"Retailers buying tea from tea packers and wholesalers today will pay the increased price," said Mr. Jameson. "One of the most widely sold blends, which we sold wholesale at 74 cents a pound will now be sold at 86 cents, with the retailer charging the consumer approximately one dollar a pound."

ANOTHER INCREASE LATER

"There is no doubt about a further increase," he said. "We look for another advance in the price of tea. It might possibly go up another 10 cents on the pound."

Increase in the price of tea resulted when the government discontinued its practice of importing tea, Mr. Jameson said, adding that individual importers were now forced to compete on the open world markets. The tea is now bought at auction with competitive bidding rather than through a government pool as during the war, he said.

"Other countries are paying high prices for tea at these auctions and consequently our buyers have to bid high also," he said.

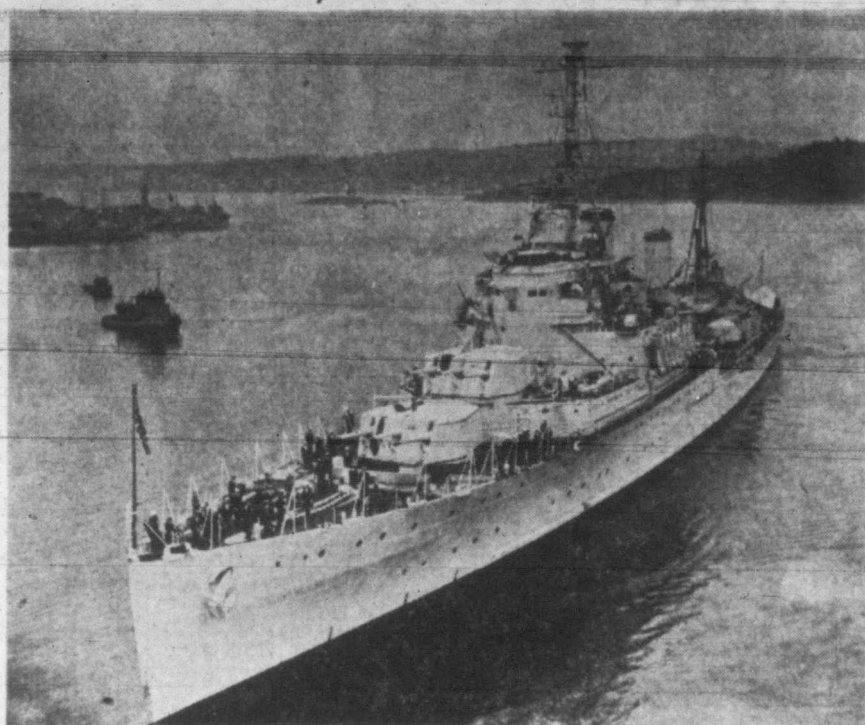

At Montreal a spokesman for Lipton's, a tea importing firm, said his firm planned to increase the price of tea by 12 cents a pound "when present stocks are exhausted."

The tea increase was forecast about 10 days ago when coffee took a "corrective" boost of 2 cents on the pound, with another boost of about seven cents on coffee expected to come in September.

Prisoner Hangs Self

QUEBEC (CP)—Mario Tardif, 24, of Quebec's north-end St. Pascal Baylon parish, was found hanging in his cell at municipal police headquarters today. Tardif, arrested Sunday night for causing disorder, hanged himself with his shirt.

Famous War Convoy Cruiser Welcomed Here

H.M.S. Kenya, British cruiser boasting a colorful war record, reached Esquimalt this morning and her complement will take an active part in Victoria's Navy Week celebrations. At right is Capt. L. A. K. Boswell, D.S.O., R.N., commander of the cruiser, who last visited this port a quarter of a century ago when en route home from the China station. He and his officers were entertained at a civic luncheon today.

H.M.S. Kenya Arrives Here To Take Part In Navy Week

H.M.S. Kenya, Royal Navy cruiser which served on many famous wartime convoys to Russia and Malta, arrived at Esquimalt today to participate in the Navy Week celebrations which opened today.

The sleek warship, one of the most modern ships of her type in the British fleet, berthed at H.M.C.S. Naden this morning at 9. Her complement aboard included 48 officers and 600 men, many of whom took part in some of the most famous naval engagements of the war.

As the warship entered Esquimalt Harbor she fired a salute, and was replied to by H.M.C.S. Ontario, R.C.N. cruiser, which is also in port for the navy celebrations.

On arriving here, Capt. L. A. K. Boswell, D.S.O., R.N., commander, who visited Victoria 25 years ago on his return from China, said it was the warship's first visit to a Canadian port.

"We left San Pedro where it was really hot," he said. "We are certainly glad to get up here."

The Kenya was launched in 1939 from the shipyard of Alexander Stephen, Scotland, by the Duchess of Gloucester. She was named after Kenya Colony, British East Africa. The ship has nine six inch guns in triple turrets, as well as eight four inch guns in twin mountings.

The ship's wartime story is packed with color and excitement. In 1941 she conducted

$200,000 Contract For Houses Awarded

Victoria Housing Ltd. has been awarded the contract to build the final 30 wartime houses to be granted under the scheme entered into by the City Council two years ago. Ald Edward Williams, manager of the company, said today.

The 30 houses, to be built largely in the Oaklands district, will cost approximately $200,000, he said, and construction will start immediately.

This will bring up to 250 the houses built by the company under wartime Housing specially for veterans. He estimated the entire project would be completed by the end of the year. The company has also built 33 in Cumberland.

Of the 50 now under construction, 26 are occupied and the other 24 will be completed at the rate of three a week he said.

convoy escort duties and mine laying expeditions close to Norway. The ship led the commando raid on Vaagso, Norway, and simultaneously bombarded the shore and engaged enemy aircraft, destroying 16.

She also took part in two famous Malta convoys. On one trip the Kenya was the only surviving cruiser. In 1943 she joined British Eastern fleet for the remainder of the war.

At noon today the ship's officers were guests at a civic reception held at the Empress Hotel. Mayor Percy George presided. Also present was Rear-Admiral E. R. Malnguy, O.B.E., R.C.N., Commanding Officer Pacific Coast.

$4,000 In Cash, Cheques Netted By Safecrackers

Safecrackers, labeled in the expert class by investigating police, broke into two premises within a six-mile radius of the city during the week-end and escaped with more than $4,000 in cash and cheques.

Between last night and this morning the safe in the Six Mile Hotel Ltd., beer parlor on the Island Highway, was broken open. It is estimated by the partner-operators that about $1,000 in cash and $2,000 in cheques was stolen.

Early Sunday morning the branch store of the General Warehouse at 1420 Douglas St. was entered, the safe punched open and $1,000 in cash stolen.

This is the first major activity by safecrackers in Victoria in two and a half months. On May 19 the safe of the Eagles Home, View Street, was cracked and a large amount of money stolen.

Police are of the opinion that the robberies are by the same gang. In both instances the safes were broken open in a similar manner, the dial being knocked off and the tumblers punched to open the main doors. A lock on the inside door of the beer parlor strongbox was knocked off to get into the safe.

Provincial Police officers, Det. Cpl. Jack Sweeney and Constables Nels Winegarden and W. Stark attended at the Six Mile Hotel this morning in answer to the report of the entry.

The partners, Reginald Felce and Carl Lieb, believe the entry must have been made between last night up to this morning, as they were both working on their accounts up to last night and left everything in order.

The thieves must have worked with extreme quietness. The partners and their wives were asleep in the second story of the building. No one was disturbed by the safecrackers working below. Constable Winegarden reported that entry was gained through a window, a clawbar being used to free the window from its fasteners.

It was also learned today that this was the third recent robbery or attempted robbery of the beer parlor in the last few weeks. Recently some cigarettes were stolen from the premises and later there was evidence of somebody working to pry a window open, but presumably the thieves were scared off before completing the objective.

It was Constable Jack Birch, on his regular rounds at 2 Sunday morning checking whether business premises were locked up securely, who discovered the entry to the General Warehouse, which Detectives Louis Callan, Angus Munro, Fearon Woodburn and Dick Donaldson are investigating.

United Nations Gets Credit For Peace Victory

BATAVIA, Java (AP)—The Indonesian Republic joined the Dutch tonight in announcing a cease-fire order to troops, stopping hostilities in Indonesia and giving the United Nations its first big victory for peace.

A Republican reply to the U.N. Security Council's demand for a halt to the 15-day war said the republic was issuing a cease fire to all troops tonight. The announcement was broadcast from Jogjakarta shortly after 8 p.m. The Dutch announced Sunday a cease fire effective midnight today. Dutch advances had halted even before the deadline.

The Republican government asked the Security Council to appoint an impartial committee to supervise enforcement of the cease fire. It said Dutch military operations had cut communications in numerous places, leading to difficulties in enforcing the order on the Republican side, and asked that the world take this into consideration.

A Dutch spokesman said most Netherlands units were already pulled up, several hours before the midnight deadline. There was almost no activity today at Semarang, which had been the Dutch troops' expected jumping-off place for an attack toward Jogjakarta.

The United Nations' Security Council last Friday called upon both sides to cease fighting. In statements Sunday the Indonesians said they were "willing" to cease hostilities, but that a truce could be carried out effectively only if the Dutch withdrew to demarcation lines established last October. There was no indication of Dutch agreement to this.

At noon the Dutch announced landing of troops on the island of Madoera, off the east coast of Java.

Details of the operations on Madoera, which was to have been included in the Indonesian Republic under the Cheribon agreement, were not disclosed by the army spokesman, who said merely that "safety measures" were being taken at the request of the population.

He added, however, that large quantities of rice were being shipped to Madoera for relief of the 1,000,000 or more persons living on the island, most of whom he said were starving as a result of being cut off from the Java mainland.

Orders for Dutch troops to cease military operations effective at midnight tonight (1 p.m. E.D.T.) were issued last night by the Dutch acting-governor-general, Hubertus J. Van Mook, despite an expressed belief that the U.N. Security Council was exceeding its authorities in intervening.

Broadcasts from the Republican capital of Jogjakarta last night said the Republican government agreed "with the (Security Council) decision that hostilities should cease and was prepared to concert all its efforts for the execution of the cessation of hostilities."

Court Action Begun In 3 Cities After Week-End Anti-Jew Riots

LONDON (CP)—Court actions began in three English cities today against persons arrested in connection with anti-Jewish riots that followed the reprisal hangings of two British sergeants in Palestine.

At Liverpool, 12 persons were remanded on bail on charges arising from what the police prosecutor described as "anti-Jewish trouble and demonstrations" during the week-end. Many shop windows were broken and crowds shouted anti-Jewish slogans, he said. Trials were set for Thursday.

Five men at Salford, Lancs., arrested on similar charges, were released on bail. These trials were set for next Monday. The prosecutor there said 29 anti-Jewish incidents occurred during the week-end.

Fines were levied against three laborers in Manchester for throwing bricks through shop windows and being drunk and disorderly.

Meanwhile, daylight disclosed further damage done to synagogues during the night in other parts of England.

After a noisy crowd had been seen near a Ramsgate synagogue, it was discovered that six windows were shattered. Notice boards were torn down and more windows smashed in a suburban London synagogue.

Horace Newbold, secretary of the Lancashire and Cheshire Federation of Trades Councils, said he was convinced the feelings of the rioters had been "played upon by Fascists lurking in the background."

FIRE HOUSES SLASHED

In Liverpool a cabinet factory was set on fire shortly before midnight Sunday. When firemen arrived to put out the flames, hostile crowds slashed fire hoses and jeered the firemen.

Crowds congregated in side streets and were moved on by police, reinforced by special officers and every police car that could be mobilized.

Large crowds of civilians and servicemen gathered in the centre of the Jewish area of Manchester and started to demonstrate. Some 400 people surrounded a Jewish dance hall and prevented the dancers from leaving until police arrived in force. Another large crowd assembled to watch plate windows of a clothing shop smashed. Each time a brick was thrown, there were cheers and cries of "Down with the Jews."

MEETING INTERRUPTED
A meeting under the auspices of the Jewish Ex-servicemen's Association in London's east end was stopped by police when a hostile crowd of some 200 people interrupted the meeting.

Six windows of a synagogue in southeast London were damaged by stone-throwing. Window smashing and damage to Jewish stores were reported in Glasgow.

The Lord Mayor of Liverpool appealed to citizens to assist the police in the prevention of attacks on property and shops owned by Jews, declaring this form of demonstration against the terrorists in Palestine was "not only ineffective, but unfair and un-English."

Immigrants Offered Jobs As Plane Lands

TORONTO (CP)—The first plane-load of the history-making mass flight of British immigrants to Ontario had no sooner arrived at Malton airport Sunday than offers of jobs were being made and accepted.

Almost before she had reached the big hangar which served as reception centre pretty 25-year-old Doris Holloway of London had accepted a job as a stenographer in Windsor, Ont. She is a former typist in the British Foreign Office.

James Doran, six-foot-three Irishman from County Down, was offered a construction job in Toronto before he had got off the landing strip. He said "there is no work in Ireland" and that he had been employed in London for the past year.

Elliott To Tell All

WASHINGTON (AP)—Elliott Roosevelt promised investigating senators today the "complete facts" about his connection with the letting of wartime airplane contracts to Howard Hughes.

The tall son of the late President, taking stand after John Meyer, Hughes' publicity man, had testified about entertaining him at rounds of parties, told senators in an opening statement that "serious implications" had been raised about his record.

U.S. Agents Meet
Desperado Violence

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Treasury said today its agents tracking down dope smugglers and moonshiners met desperado violence this spring reminiscent of "the old rum-running days."

Two investigators were slain from ambush in Georgia and one squad of "T-men" had their car riddled by bullets while shooting it out with dope smugglers on the California-Mexico border.

Two, and possibly three, of the smugglers were wounded fatally although they lived long enough to escape into Mexico, the Treasury said. The agents were untouched.

First Of Air Immigrants Arrive
From Britain, Get Warm Welcome

TORONTO (CP)—With anxious, but tired expressions, 39 Britons arrived at nearby Malton airport Sunday afternoon to complete the first step of a historic mass air migration to Ontario from the United Kingdom.

The first of some 7,000 who will be flown across the Atlantic at the rate of about 250 a week, the group—comprising engineers, builders, farmers, mechanics and typists—were weary after more than 20 flight hours and a delay at Gander airport, Nfld., but happy at the thought of being in Canada.

Hundreds of persons gathered at the airfield outside Toronto as relatives, friends and prospective employers waited for hours for the huge four-engined trans-ocean Skymaster arrived hours after it was due, delayed by ground fog in Newfoundland early today.

Rushed through a stand-up medical examination, questioning by customs and immigration, the group—34 men and five women—found themselves with more offers of employment than they knew what to do with less than an hour after they landed. There was excitement among the group as reporters, photographers, radio men, Red Cross officials, and members of the Ontario government singled out each of the Britons as they were passed by immigration.

The huge T.C.A. hangar set aside especially for the welcoming ceremonies rang with gay chatter and awe of the quantities of food being passed about. First person off the plane—William D. Bowne, 29-year-old engineer from Erith, Kent—greeted

Ontario Premier Drew with "I had four week's egg ration for breakfast this morning."

He noted their arrival was exactly two months after first discussions were started concerning the immigration by air scheme.

Weather

A northwesterly flow of cool air has swept southward over B.C. and will result in cooler weather throughout most of the province. A few scattered thunderstorms occurred in the southern interior during the night, otherwise skies were mostly clear. Scattered thunderstorms are expected in the interior in the late afternoon and evening today and Tuesday. Scattered showers and cooler weather have brought some relief to the drought-stricken prairies.

Vancouver and vicinity, Lower Fraser Valley, Georgia Strait—Cloudy this morning, clear this afternoon and evening, becoming cloudy during the night. Cloudy Tuesday morning, clearing in the afternoon. Winds northwesterly 15 in the afternoon, otherwise light. Cooler today and Tuesday.

Wind Flips Plane Over Easily As Straw Hat

Salvage operations to retrieve one of their swamped aircraft are being carried out by the staff of Doherty Flying Service in Muskoka, Ont. The plane seen here was overturned by the strong winds which accompanied a storm. Plane was flipped into the water by powerful gusts while craft was anchored at Muskoka wharf, near Gravenhurst.

Wife, Husband Dead In Murder, Suicide

BURY, Que. (CP)—Mrs. Hazel Allison, 27, was shot and killed Saturday night and her army-veteran husband died in hospital the following morning from gunshot wounds in what provincial police described today as murder and suicide resulting from a fit of jealousy on the husband's part.

Provincial police said Mrs. Allison died in the parlor of the 10-room frame house where she and her husband and a four-year-old child lived with Allison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Allison. Police said the paternity status of the child, born while Allison was overseas, had formed the basis of domestic strife.

Police said the couple had an argument Saturday night about attending a dance at a nearby village and that the pretty young wife had told her husband that she intended to separate from him.

Gerald Lapointe, a neighbor, told police that Allison came to his home Saturday night and declared that he had shot his wife.

Provincial police found Allison walking along the road near the house with serious facial and head wounds. Although he was conscious during the trip to nearby Sherbrooke he refused to tell police the reason for the shooting.

Gandhi Escapes As Moslems Attack

SRINAGAR, Kashmir, India (Reuter)—Police dispersed supporters of the Moslem conference (Pro-Moslem League Party in Kashmir) when they tried to mob Mohandas K. Gandhi's car at Baramala, 35 miles from here.

A window of the car was smashed, but Gandhi was unhurt and continued on to Srinagar. Earlier Gandhi told a prayer meeting in Rawalpindi, Punjab: "Missionaries will not be asked to quit, and Indian Christians will be free to occupy high official positions in the Indian Dominion."

Ten Die In Beauty Parlor Blast

Volunteer rescue workers carry a woman victim from the shattered wreckage of a Harrisonburg, Va., beauty parlor which was destroyed by a gas explosion. Ten persons were killed and more than 30 others injured.

Murder Suspect Gives Himself Up To Montreal Priest

MONTREAL (CP)—Roland Fiset paid a visit to a parish priest in suburban St. Paul L'Ermitte last night, sat down and talked of his troubles, and then waited quietly until police came after the priest told him he knew the man was wanted as a murder suspect.

Fiset, a 32-year-old accountant, was found criminally responsible by a coroner's jury Saturday for the necktie slaying of Annette Diotte, a 36-year-old candy factory worker whose body was found last Friday on the floor of her tiny one-room apartment on east-end Labelle Street.

Capt. Detective Georges Allain of the homicide squad said today that Fiset, who will be arraigned this morning, had made a statement in connection with the murder in which he admitted that an argument in which blows were struck by both parties had preceded the slaying, believed to have taken place sometime last Wednesday.

Fiset's surrender had all the markings of a Hollywood murder mystery. He rang the doorbell at St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church in St. Paul L'Ermitte and was escorted to the office of the parish priest, Rev. Father Auguste Pare. "May I have some water, father?" Fiset asked.

"There is more on your mind than a glass of water," Father Pare replied as he filled a glass for him. "You are Roland Fiset aren't you?" the priest asked, recognizing him from photographs in the newspapers.

"Yes," he admitted. "I am sorry, but I must do my duty and call the police," Father Pare told him.

Before and after admitting his identity, the priest said they had conversed at length. Miss Diotte's body was found Friday in her apartment and a green necktie which police said had been used to strangle her lay on the floor nearby. On a table was a note which said in part: "We loved each other too much. This had to end."

Police said their investigation had disclosed that Fiset was a former boy friend of the slain woman and that they believed jealousy was the motive.

Seek Killer Whale Off Island Coast

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia fishermen have been asked by Dr. G. Clifford Carl of the Provincial Museum to report any movements of the rare white "killer" whale, off Vancouver Island.

Warning that the whale should not be molested, Dr. Carl said the animal provides unusual opportunity to learn about the species.

Avert Embargo On Coal From U.S.

OTTAWA (CP)—A proposal to restrict the movement of United States freight cars into Canada—particularly coal-carrying gondolas—has been postponed, transport controller B. S. Liberty announced Saturday.

An embargo which would have cut down shipments of U.S. coal to Canada had been in prospect for Aug. 5, the controller said, but the postponement was granted as Canada reduced her adverse balance of railway cars with American lines.

The adverse balance—the difference between Canadian cars in the U.S. and American cars in Canada—was 18,000 cars six weeks ago. In his statement, the controller said advice had been received that the U.S. office of defence transportation proposed to place a "restriction" on the movement of further cars to Canada until the balance had been sliced to 8,000.

Change In Policy On War Sales Likely

OTTAWA (CP)—War Assets Corporation has disposed of 70 per cent of the war surplus materials turned over to it and a change likely will be made in the next six months in disposal policies, J. H. Berry, president of the corporation, said Saturday in an interview.

Thirty-four of the 62 warehouses used by the corporation would be closed by the end of next month, said Mr. Berry. Already 21 regional warehouses had been closed and 13 others were scheduled to close next month, leaving only 28 in operation across the country.

Mr. Berry said that once the selling job was completed the corporation would lose its reason for existence.

Jet Planes Shown On Soviet Air Day

MOSCOW (AP)—Prime Minister Stalin and the military attaches of many foreign countries watched with interest today as the Soviet government took the wraps off Russian jet planes for the first time at an air show here on the Soviet Aviation Day.

Many new Russian jet models participated in the show and flew past the capacity crowd at Moscow's air field at top speed. Stalin stood for 2 1/2 hours in a hot sun to watch the show.

The most important aspect of the show was the demonstration of Russian progress in jet plane propulsion. In the 1946 show, one jet plane was shown. Today dozens of planes of several different models were flown.

Butter Stocks Grow Despite Unrationing

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's stocks of creamery butter are gradually increasing even though ration books no longer are needed to restrict sales. The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today that stocks in nine of the principal cities on Aug. 1 totaled 38,571,602 pounds, compared with 25,488,021 on July 1 and 34,565,722 on the corresponding date last year.

Commission Appointed

Appointment of four members to the Commission for the Education of Soldiers' Dependent Children was approved by order-in-council at the Legislative Buildings Saturday. Appointments were: F. T. Fairley, deputy minister of education, chairman; F. J. Townsend, Canadian Legion Provincial Command; T. R. Wheadon, Army and Navy Veterans' B.C. Command; and A. Palmer, member of the Amputations' Association of the Great War.

The appointment is for the year ending June 30, 1948.

Canadian Painter Dies

SASKATOON (CP)—Gus Kenderdine, 78, well-known Canadian painter and professor of art and director of the school of fine arts at Regina College, died here today after a short illness. Noted chiefly for landscapes, the British Royal Academician was also a skilled portrait painter, his canvasses being displayed in many parts of the Dominion.

JOBS AND BOAT-ROCKERS

NOT SO VERY LONG AGO OUR friends on the south side of the 49th parallel were being told that if 60,000,000 jobs could be made available and filled soon after the Axis had ceased to exist, there would be little cause for serious economic apprehension. This was regarded at the time as a noble thought but more or less a case of wishful thinking. Not a few economists and editorial writers were telling the general public that the goal itself was fantastically visionary, utterly impossible, and thoroughly demagogic.

Much of this skepticism, of course, derived from the fact that the former Vice-President of the United States, then Secretary of Commerce in the Roosevelt administration, Mr. Henry Wallace, was the author of a program which he considered would produce the condition now realized. It is beside the point that these same economists and editorial writers are now pointing somewhat gleefully to the fact that the objective already has been reached without the application of the formula of which the "stormy petrel" of the Democratic Party made so much in 1944.

It is not an outsider's business to dilate on the controversies that are now raging about the head of Mr. Wallace. If, however, the former Vice-President feels inclined to point with some pride to the fact that his objective has not only been reached but passed, none will begrudge him his obvious feeling of satisfaction. But because this eminently satisfactory employment situation in the United States—regardless of recurring labor troubles—has a direct relationship to international economics, it ought to remind the workers of this country that never before in the history of trades unionism has the demand for the products of labor been so insistent as it is at the present time, and will be for many months.

It may perhaps be somewhat presumptuous on our part to suggest that the Dominion's intelligent and far-seeing labor leaders might well emphasize to their respective memberships the vital importance to them of this hopeful state of affairs in the labor market of the neighboring republic. To be sure, it is not always a simple matter for the more imaginative elements among the trades union movement in Canada to counteract the policies of frustration to which, on frequent occasions, others less concerned with the welfare and progress of the nation than they are with their own self-aggrandizement are wont to apply themselves. Since official statistics should be able to stand up against the arguments of the skeptics, moreover, those who are now beginning to lower their tone in predictions of some form of recession in the offing will have noted that the number of employed persons in the United States in 1939 was less than 45,000,000 and that more than 60,000,000 are gainfully working now.

And well do we recall that during the session of the British Columbia Legislature in the spring of 1944, and again in 1945, the leader and members of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation were loudly protesting against what they called utter lack of preparation to meet the economic aftermath of the Second World War. Two years ago in the local House, for instance, Mr. Winch and those able debaters who readily underscored his arguments and observations, painted a grim picture of employment prospects for 1946 and for several years to come. Well, when the leader of Canada's third party appealed to the electorate in the late fall of 1945 six of his most forceful lieutenants in the Legislature were soundly defeated at the polls. Small wonder, then, he now finds himself allied with the provincial leader of the Labor-Progressive Party and a prominent national official of the Canadian Congress of Labor (C.C.O.) in a new leftist campaign designed to make cold shivers run up and down our backs.

STILL TIME

SOME TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATIONS prepared by several delegates to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission urge that atomic stockpile and production facilities be distributed among the nations of the world in order to discourage an aggressor nation from trying to seize such equipment as a prelude to war. The representatives, including Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton for Canada, are apparently working on the principle that if everyone had the secret and the facilities to implement it, no would-be war-maker could obtain monopoly possession through a sudden swoop. It would then be evident that even if an aggressor nation gained control of the atomic plants in one country, there would be other sources of atomic weapons in other parts of the world for the use of those who rallied against the attacker. The commission members feel that this would be a deterrent to any week-end sorties such as Hitler was wont to stage.

The proposals have still to be confirmed by the delegates' governments and undergo further committee discussion; but they mark a concrete, though small, step forward in the urgent efforts of most of the nations to safeguard humanity from the effects of the great natural force which has been unleashed. Those with a full knowledge of the results and future potentials of the atomic bomb—and the Hiroshima variety has long been obsolete—have uttered solemn warnings that there is no time to be lost in raising permanent safeguards. We would do well to heed that warning.

THEY WILL STAND SO MUCH

MINOR RIOTING WHICH BROKE OUT in several cities in England following the hanging of two British soldiers by Jewish extremists was deplorable, but not unexpected. The people of Britain have borne a great deal. Their nerves have been drawn taut by years of stringent living and war dangers; they are now being asked to accept still more austerity while stepping up production; they have suffered widespread criticism for the situation in Palestine—the control of which they assumed under international authority. Now they have had the added sorrow of two young Britons being tortured to death by the Zionist underground. Their patience has been long and generous; but there is a limit.

Many thousands of Jewish residents have known Britain as a land of justice and equal opportunity. Still other thousands in the past few years have known her as a refuge and haven from political or racial persecution. Wider than those of any other country her doors were opened to the oppressed. The actions of the Palestine extremists are therefore the more reprehensible, and they will be condemned by those of the Jewish faith, no less than by Gentiles, throughout the world. A statement issued by the underground, saying, "We have not yet settled our hanging account with the British," and threatening further hangings, will intensify this attitude.

The week-end reactions in London, Glasgow, Liverpool and Manchester were not in the British tradition. Participation fortunately was limited. But it will be evident to Jews everywhere that their cause is suffering irreparable harm through the behavior of the fanatics in the Holy Land. They are destroying favorable public opinion in the one country which was doing most, and could do most, to help them. It is another case—and they have been numerous in history—in which many Jews must suffer for the actions of a few. The many might do well in this instance to unite to deal with the few for their own salvation.

UNIFORM DRESS

A JOINT COMMITTEE OF ALL THREE armed services which has been meeting for the past few months is reported to be arriving at the conclusion that a uniform based on the wartime battledress of the army should be adopted by all Canadian forces. The R.C.A.F. during the war did come out in battledress tunics on occasion, and navy blue tunics were seen at times, but the official dress of these two services remained relatively unchanged. The air force, being a more recent organization, may be amenable to changes in dress. But there is fair indication that the boys in blue will look with suspicion, not to say aversion, on anything that threatens to alter the appearance of their traditional uniform.

Much of the uniform, moreover, is bound up with tradition going back to early years of the Royal Navy: the bell-bottom trousers, for ease in rolling up in the days of bare feet and wooden decks; the seven creases in the trousers, representing the seven seas; the blue collar with its three white stripes for Nelson's great victories at the Battles of the Nile, Copenhagen and Trafalgar; the black scarf or "silk," in mourning for the famous British admiral; the tight "jumper," and other familiar features. Navy men with a taste for "tiddeys" order uniforms made with emphasis on some of these points. They like their trousers a little wider than regulation, their jumpers a little narrower, and so on. There will be real perturbation on the lower deck if the committee insists on any drastic departures.

STATISTICS AND PEACE

MOST PEOPLE ARE AVERSE TO THE consideration of statistics. But the people of all progressive and peace-loving countries should take time occasionally to study the problems of the Old World—especially those who are specifically interested in whether the Western or Eastern concept of Democracy shall prevail. They might note that those who seem to be enamored of Communistic policies and practices outnumber those who insist—quite rightly—that they shall be allowed to say what they think, why they think it, and when they think it, by some 60,000,000.

Nothing in the foregoing suggests that mere numbers influence national policy. On the contrary, as in the case of democratic Italy, and in the old Germany of democratic persuasion, the majority obviously was opposed to totalitarianism. This is the point which those who ardently desire to prevent another world war should and must take into account when and if they manifest sufficient interest in the moving panorama of events to try to render some form of support to those who are beginning to feel they are waging a losing battle.

Why envy the imposing mansion? You can enjoy its outside beauty, as the owner seldom does.

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP

THE HERTER EXPERIMENT

THE HOUSE of Representatives has just launched a scientific experiment even more significant than Professor Yerkes' famous inquiries into the psychology of chimpanzees. Under the leadership of Representative Christian Herter, 19 members of the House are to set off for Europe this summer. Their aim will be, not to investigate the delightfully scabrous habits of the wicked Europeans, nor even to be richly entertained in the manner befitting their high stations, but to have a look at the grim facts of the world situation. When they return in the fall, we shall have the answer to that often debated question: Can Congressmen learn?

SPEAKING MORE SERIOUSLY, the significance of the so-called House Committee of Nineteen deserves much more emphasis than was given when this body was named by Speaker Joseph W. Martin.

There have been times in the recent past when it seemed that Congressmen were incapable of learning, or at any rate of reasoning from known facts to sensible conclusions about foreign policy. But there has been an excuse for this seeming obtuseness. The facts have always been hastily transmitted by officials of the State Department and other leaders of the executive branch. And the facts have always seemed unbelievably remote and unreal to many members of the House and Senate, who are more preoccupied with the immediate affairs of their districts. Now a thoroughly representative group from the House will see the facts for themselves. They are not to junket. They are genuinely to explore the situation in the manner of an academic study group. Whatever the results—and it is entirely possible that some of the results may be very bad indeed—they will tell us a great deal about the character of the legislative body that rules this country.

THE IDEA OF THE COMMITTEE ORIGINATED

in the mind of Representative Herter, a serious, able Massachusetts conservative, who is approximately a middle-of-the-roader in matters of foreign policy. He had been helped by on-the-spot investigations conducted by himself last year. As a member of the all-powerful Rules Committee, he was also perhaps impressed by the decreasing influence of the House Foreign Affairs Committee—the only body to which the administration regularly talks about foreign policy in the House.

BY LONG CONTACT with the facts, the Foreign Affairs Committee has been wholly won away from isolationism. But the average House member is not affected by the committee's views. The sturdier Representatives even publicly attribute it to the corruption of diplomatic entertaining—those tepid but free drinks, those desiccated sandwiches, those effortful conversations among caterers' set-pieces—to which the members of the Foreign Affairs Committee are dangerously exposed. Herter offered his resolution establishing the Committee of Nineteen as a corrective to this situation. The idea was that if the facts impressed ordinary members known to have been previously uncorrupted, then their friends on the House floor would be swayed by their judgments.

THERE ENSUED the natural jurisdictional schemozzle with the House Foreign Affairs Committee. (This committee's natural habit of keeping its business to itself is one reason for its loss of influence.) Eventually, however, the wise Representative Eaton of New Jersey agreed to the Herter plan, and the Herter Committee was authorized.

The manner of its appointment was significant. Herter made only two requests of speaker Martin. First, he asked that none of the House good-time Charlies or professional baby-kissers or incorrigible victims of the terrible oratory habit be named to the committee. He wanted only men who would work, and were ready to take a hard trip in order to work. Second, he wanted a committee which would be a cross-section of the House as a whole.

MARTIN'S CHOICES fulfilled Herter's desires. In character, the committee ranges from such a hard-shell isolationist as August H. Andresen of Minnesota to the progressive, far-seeing A. S. Monroney of Oklahoma. Besides being reasonably representative, the committee also meets Herter's other, equally important, specifications.

It's trip, moreover, is to contrast strangely with the average junket. It will begin in New York in late August, with a long and serious preliminary briefing from the State Department's new counselor, Charles E. Bohlen. It will be illuminated, along the way, by the explanations of a staff of experts headed by Professor William L. Ells. It will consist of a long seminar aboard ship as the first stage; visit to the Ruhr by the whole committee, and then visits by sub-committees to the rest of Germany and Austria, England, France, the Low Countries, Italy and Greece as the second stage; and a prolonged shipboard meeting to prepare a report on the way home.

THE COMMITTEE has even agreed that Herter is not to approve vouchers for pleasant side-expeditions, and one member who wished to go to Europe by air has already been refused. Embassies everywhere have been alerted to show the Representatives the real face of European life. Seeing the facts and weighing them is to be the sole object.

Hounded By Bill Collectors

Formation Of The Dominions

India Information Services

A statement from the Viceroy's House at New Delhi has announced that in order to facilitate the setting-up of the new administration in Pakistan, the Interim Government should be constituted on the following lines:

"The government will consist of two groups representing the two successor governments of India and Pakistan."

"The two groups will meet separately to consider matters concerning their own territories, and jointly under the chairmanship of the Governor-General to consider matters of common concern."

"Existing departments will be manned by staffs who have elected to remain with India and will be in charge of members representing India."

"Personnel who have chosen to serve in Pakistan will withdraw from existing departments and will staff departments which will be organized at once in Delhi and will be in charge of Pakistan members of the cabinet."

"There will thus be what amounts to two provisional governments, one for India and one for Pakistan, each dealing with its own business and consulting the other on matters of common concern."

When the Indian Independence Bill received the consent of His Majesty, it became necessary on practical and administrative grounds to reconstruct the Governor-General's Executive Council. One clause of the act was indeed specifically designed to enable this to be done.

MANY DECISIONS

There are many matters affecting the two new Dominions in respect of which the Governor-General will between now and August 15 require the advice of those who will be responsible for the future administration of the Dominions. A case in point is the adaptation to be made in the Government of India Act of 1935 which as from that date will be the law of constitution in the Dominion. The 1935 Act is likely to be adapted in a different way for each of the two Dominions. Adaptation orders and similar orders will be in the nature of orders-in-council and such orders should naturally be made on the advice of the council solely concerned with the administration of the territories in question.

There are also decisions to be taken relating to the North-West Frontier Province in the light of the results of the referendum recently held.

Up to this time, in matters relating to the implementation of His Majesty's Government's statement of June 3, the Viceroy has been acting in consultation with leaders of political parties. With important decisions requiring to be taken affecting the setting up of new Dominions, this procedure has become unsuitable. It is necessary now that the Provisional Governments should be set up at once so that they can take their due share in the organization of the new set-up and can take over power on August 15 without inconvenience or dislocation.

China Poses A Ticklish Problem

By JAMES THRASHER, From New York

THE PRESENCE in China of the mission headed by General Wedemeyer calls attention forcefully to the fact that the United States government's headache is global. Public thought may have been taken up lately with the problem of moves and counter-moves in Europe against expanding Russian Communism, but all the troubles don't originate in the Kremlin.

General Wedemeyer is in China for another trip, perhaps the last one, at persuading Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to reform and reorganize his government. There have been two recent "reforms," both hopefully hailed—the new Chinese constitution—and a reorganization aimed at making the government more representative. But they have produced no successful results, and there is even considerable question about their sincerity.

LOSING WAR

The Nationalist government seems to be losing the civil war, and losing it fast. The facts behind the situation are familiar. American observers, whatever their political sympathies, agree almost unanimously that the Chiang regime is a corrupt, inefficient dictatorship. The economy is tottering on inflation. The people are hungry, and there is much popular support of the Communists.

The United States is stuck with that regime and that situation. It may be too late for the Chiang government to do any effective reorganizing, even if the inclination is there. Yet the United States government must try to bolster that totalitarian, graft-ridden clique. Otherwise Communism will almost surely impose itself on a country with more than three times the American population.

The United States' position in China is only one painful example of the embarrassing spot it has been in since the war. As the chief bulwark against Communism, America is compelled to accept and support some political bed-fellows almost as distasteful, though not as dangerous, as the Soviets.

MOST UNSAVORY

It is backing-reactionary, undemocratic governments in Greece and Turkey, as well as in China. For the sake of hemispheric safety, this government supports some Latin-American dictatorships whose policies are most unsavory and undemocratic.

Even in the Indonesian fighting the United States finds itself as champion of Europe's non-Communist governments, tied up indirectly with a government whose present activities bear a distressing resemblance to the Fascist war against Ethiopia.

The unhappy truth is that democratic government which guarantees individual rights and freedoms is a pretty scarce item in the world today. That type of government will not, by war or treachery, force its way of life on another country.

LIMITED EFFECT

So, in opposing the spread of Communism by force, the United States cannot always guarantee something in its place that is very much better. About the only tactic it has in such a situation is to require that certain conditions of reform be met before financial assistance is given.

That, presumably, is the tactic that General Wedemeyer is using in China now. Its effectiveness is limited in comparison with Communist methods. But that is no reason why it cannot be used wherever conditions require it. Moscow calls it dollar diplomacy. Yet that should not blind the people whom it benefits to the fact that it really is an instrument for disseminating the priceless enjoyment of human freedom.

Global Survey

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst

WE get a wee glimpse of rain-bow through the storm-clouds in the compliance by Holland and the Indonesian Republicans with the order by the United Nations Security Council for cessation of the bloody hostilities in the Dutch East Indies.

This is the first command ever issued by the council in the interests of peace. It may be the last if it isn't made to stick.

Whether it is made to stick will depend on whether members of the Security Council can bury self-interest and their own differences long enough to deal with this Indonesian threat to global tranquility.

The League of Nations died because of the inability of its members to measure up to these identical requirements. One recognizes that Holland—as the "Mother Country"—has had to swallow a bitter pill in ordering the cease fire against those whom she regards as rebels. One can understand why the representative of an imperial government should have taken this viewpoint. However, the ambassador most certainly will run up against the argument that, in the new era which the world is entering, a quarrel between a "Mother Country" and a dependency of another race no longer constitutes an "internal affair."

Of course this opens up a big field for argument. We see that in the nature of the Security Council vote on the Australian-American resolution which ordered the Netherlands and Indonesian governments to cease fighting immediately and settle their differences by peaceful means. There are 11 members of the council, including the big five—America, Britain, Russia, France and China. The vote was 8 to 0 in favor of the resolution, with three abstentions.

Those abstaining were imperial governments—Britain, France and Belgium—and they kept quiet for obvious reasons.

So while we can say—and the world in general will agree—that empires are on their way out, yet it will be a long time before all of them are broken up. While they remain we must expect the Imperial governments to insist on their right to defend what they regard as their rightful possessions.

The way things stand at this writing, the Netherlands government has accepted the offer of the United States to use its good offices in an effort to settle the Dutch-Indonesian differences. The republicans don't like the idea of having only one country act as mediator, but the matter is under consideration.

NOT "FOREVER AMBER"

Edmonton Journal

"Forever Amber" was certainly not the motto of those who designed our traffic lights. All too often the wayfarer sees the red light go on while he is still some yards from shore, and finds himself dodging wildly amidst an endless procession of cars, trucks and buses. The experience definitely ages one.

MUSIC BATH CHARMS

London (Ont.) Free Press

No statistical record is available to measure the satisfaction, delight and comfort of the wares minstrels set before the hungry hearts of bewildered and frustrated men. With a song in his heart, a man may go the second mile in many an arduous endeavor, and walk with a lighter step because of the mystic power of music.

NUMBERS RACKET

Washington Post

That indefatigable iconoclast, Dr. George Gallup, has now delved into the sacred realm of personal habit to disclose that only one motorist in three remembers his license number. What launched Dr. Gallup on this startling revelation we cannot say. Perhaps it was a particularly frustrating experience of his own—such as might occur at a crowded parking lot on a rainy night when he had lost his car check. At any rate, the pollsters have put their finger on an extremely vulnerable spot. The affliction probably does not stem from the same cause that makes a woman unable to remember her age, though undoubtedly it is akin to the trouble experienced by the person who cannot recall where he put his driver's license when confronted by a particularly menacing minion of the law.

They'll Do It Every Time

Plaque Unveiled Honoring P.P.C.L.I. Dead In Two Wars

At the entrance to the X-ray and out-patient section of the Victoria Veterans' Hospital Saturday, Brig. W. G. Colquhoun, C.B.E., M.C., a former commanding officer of the regiment, officiated at a ceremony in which a bronze plaque was unveiled in memory of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry Regiment personnel who fell on the battlefield in two world wars.

Seventy-five former and present members of the regiment attended the ceremony. While Brig. Colquhoun unveiled the plaque, Maj. R. Melville, padre of the regiment in the first World War, dedicated it.

Brig. Colquhoun, in an address, pointed out that the flower of the regiment was left behind buried in foreign soil "and it is our responsibility to carry on the spirit displayed by these gallant warriors." He reviewed the colorful history of the regiment. "Our fallen comrades have set an example for all to follow," said Maj. Melville in reading the scripture lesson and dedicating the plaque.

The Esquimalt branch of the women's auxiliary to the regiment sponsored the plaque, and Sgt. Maj. Robert McVie, Sr., introduced Mrs. C. H. Pelly, president of the auxiliary, who presented the hospital with furnishings for the X-ray and out-patient rooms of the hospital on behalf of her group. Dr. Charles A. Watson, medical superintendent of the hospital, accepted the furnishings from Mrs. Pelly.

Mobile Blood Clinic Coming Wednesday

The mobile blood clinic of the Red Cross Society will be in Victoria Wednesday and at Sidney and Patricia Bay on Thursday, it is announced.

While in the city the unit will operate at the Britannia Branch, Canadian Legion Hall, Cormorant and Blanshard. The clinic will operate in two shifts—afternoon and evening.

"Owing to the holiday season and depleted staffs, there is some difficulty in contacting the required number of donors. Therefore, any person without an appointment will be welcomed at the clinic," one Red Cross official stated.

Thursday morning the clinic will move to Sidney, where 70 persons are registered to donate. In the afternoon the unit will move to the Patricia Bay airport to receive donations from R.C. A.F. personnel.

Vaudeville Show For Youth Fund

The Victoria Y's Men's Club will present a vaudeville program as a World Youth Fund project in Victoria High School Auditorium Aug. 22 and 23.

Wynn Shaw will present her pupils in several dancing numbers. Ernie Crawford, magician; Reg Stofor, novelty musical numbers, an acrobatic display by an all-girl group, and Victoria Chinese Association sword drill and lion dance, will be among other numbers on the program.

Mickey Francis will be master of ceremonies.

A resident of ancient Athens could be exiled for five or 10 years if 6,000 citizens voted for his removal.

Newspapers Suggest Crisis May Postpone Socialization Plans

LONDON (AP)—Speculation Britain's Labor government might postpone or even abandon pending nationalization measures in view of the country's economic crisis appeared in most London newspapers today.

Official quarters declined comment. The well-informed London Observer said it now "looks as if" nationalization of iron and steel, scheduled for action in Parliament next October, will be dropped.

"The question was discussed by the cabinet last week and although nothing was finally decided the opinion was strongly expressed that this was not the time to nationalize the industry," the Observer said.

Failure to go ahead with nationalizing iron and steel, gas and electricity and other items on its program undoubtedly would bring severe criticism from many government supporters, who hold that Socialism must be achieved quickly to put the country's economy on a permanently strong basis.

Conservatives, on the other hand, would welcome the abandonment of further Socialist experiments.

In slightly more than two years of office, the government has nationalized the coal mines, the Bank of England, civil aviation and the world-wide Cable and Wireless Ltd. facilities. A bill nationalizing long-distance transport has been passed by the House of Commons and minor objections raised by the House of Lords are being ironed out.

Herbert Marshall Weds
SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP)—Actor Herbert Marshall and Patricia (Boots) Mallory, 34, former dancer, were married Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Joseph M. Ewing performed the ceremony.

DETROIT (AP)—Climaxing a romance that started 18 years ago, William Van Asperen, 73, Saturday took as his bride 94-year-old Ellen Davis. The couple first met at a dance. They fell in love but "things got in the way" of their marriage until now.

Announce Winners Of Poster Contest

Sylvia Southin, grade 9 student at Oak Bay High School was first prizewinner of the poster competition sponsored by the Greater Victoria School Board in connection with the school building program by-law in June, it was announced by the board today.

Other $5 prizewinner was June Orchard, grade 9 student at Central Junior High School.

Their posters were picked from more than 350 submitted by the high school students of the Greater Victoria area for the competition. The board members praised the artistic skill and imagination shown by the students in their posters, which were used to advertise the building program.

Winners of the $2.50 prizes were: Pat Whan, grade 9, Central Junior High School; E. Hodgson, grade 12, Victoria High School, and Mary Ball, grade 10, Mount Douglas High School.

474 Glenlake Ave., Toronto, Ontario
Lantigen Laboratories Ltd., 12 Richmond St. E., Toronto, Ontario

Dear Sirs:

During the early summer I received and used your Lantigen "E" for Hay Fever. For the first time in many years while a resident of this city, I was free of the disease; during the season, on one or two occasions I experienced a few sniffles, similar to that of a cold in the early stages.

Needless to say, Lantigen "E" will again be used next year, as I found no ill effects, but definite relief.

Sincerely yours,
R. J. J. J.

Former City Youth Won Coveted U.S. Scholarship Prize

Visiting his home town after a five-year absence, Theodore R. Hendershot, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hendershot, former Victorians now living at Whitefish, Montana, recently headed a large field of graduate matriculation students in the United States to win the coveted U.S. Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps scholarship at Rochester College, New York.

Theodore and Mrs. Hendershot are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Max McAlpin at Cordova Bay and will leave tomorrow for their home in Montana. Mrs. Hendershot is the former Miss Bessie Mallek.

Theodore, through his excellent showing in matriculation examinations, was selected to vie for the valuable scholarship against 1,200 other scholars chosen from every state in the Union.

The brilliant young student will utilize the scholarship for a four-year course in optical science.

Printing Trades Picnic Draws 300

Three hundred members of the Allied Printing Trades, their wives, children and friends, gathered at Goldstream picnic grounds Sunday for another highly successful annual outing.

The occasion was greeted with bright, summer weather and the program included races and novelty events. Highlight attraction of the day was a softball game between teams composed of members of the Times and Colonist staffs and the King's Printer, in which the nine wearing the newspaper colors emerged with a 6 to 3 victory.

Included in the gathering were typists, pressmen, bookbinders, mailers, stereotypers, personnel from paper supply houses and others allied to the trade. The Allied Printing Trades' Council sponsored the picnic. Free ice cream and candy were provided for the children.

Shawnigan Heifer Gets Silver Medal

SHAWNIGAN LAKE—Medal records continue to be made in the herd of Harold Gaunt, Shawnigan Lake, Vancouver Island, B.C.

This time the winner is a senior yearling, Forest Glen Pilot's Sandra (166280), a Jersey heifer bred by Mr. Gaunt and going on test at 1 year, 323 days of age. Sandra, in 365 days, produced 7,716 pounds of milk, 492 pounds of fat, with an average test of 6.38 per cent, and qualifying for a silver medal certificate.

Housing Situation For Veterans Acute

There is no easing in the acute housing shortage among the war veterans' ranks, it is revealed by figures from A. Palmer, executive secretary of the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council.

There are still 600 families needing accommodation, he said, adding that work was progressing as quickly as possible in re-converting Gordon Head camp. Forty-one families have been moved in to date.

Stray Bullet Kills Four-Year-Old Boy

NEW YORK (AP)—A four-year-old Bronx boy was killed by a stray bullet today as detectives fired a fusillade of shots to halt a youth they wanted to question about a hold-up slaying.

The boy, Emil Urrutia, seated in an automobile, was struck in the head and died 15 minutes after being admitted to a hospital.

The fleeing youth, Nick Marinello, 19, was hit in the neck and back. He was reported in critical condition.

Two Killed When Aircraft Crashes

FISHER BRANCH, Mal. (CP)—Two Manitoba men were killed six miles north of here today when the aircraft in which they were flying crashed in an oat field.

Dead are Robert Giffon, 43, of Portage La Prairie, who was piloting the aircraft, and Boris Dimchuk, 27, of Pleasant Home. Cause of the crash has not been determined.

MAY BE FUTURE HOME OF PRINCESS—Sunninghill Park, a 6700-acre estate in Berkshire, Eng., is believed to be the future home of Princess Elizabeth and Louis Mountbatten. The property, with its 25-room mansion, was acquired two years ago.

New Scholarships Offered At U.B.C.

Two new scholarships valued at $350 for each year, and three prizes for a total annual value of $150 are being offered at the University of B.C., it was announced by the president's office.

The first scholarship is offered by trustees of a fund established by the late Alan Boag, and is for a student taking major work in history, economics, government, international studies or political science. Its value is $250 and will be awarded for the best essay or report on some aspect of Socialism.

The N. Leo Klein Memorial Scholarship, valued at $100 annually, is the gift of I. J. Klein of Vancouver, replacing an earlier memorial scholarship of $50. It will be awarded the student obtaining first place in the examinations of the third year commerce.

Two book prizes, valued at $25 each, are the gift of the Chemical Institute of Canada, to be awarded students entering the fourth year.

A $100 prize, gift of Jack Bell of the Northern Peat Moss Co. Ltd., is for undergraduates in the third or fourth year and for graduates in agriculture or agricultural engineering.

The board of governors has also been advised that a $200 scholarship, awarded annually to a student from Ocean Falls, Powell River, Port Alice, Port Mellon or Woodfibre by the International Brotherhood of Pulp Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers, Local 312, has been raised to $250 from this year.

PLEASE NOTE:—

During Oct., Nov., Dec., Jan., Feb., and March, sawdust is in great demand. The dealers usually have difficulty keeping the customers supplied.

Many people prefer sawdust to any other fuel, finding it economical, more or less automatic, and hot.

However, your assistance is required to make the distribution a success.

As an illustration, sawdust cannot be kept in the open yard like wood, so in order to store it for you we would need a shed the size of a big hotel. We would have to dump sawdust here and pick it up again during the winter.

This means we would have our money invested in a shed and sawdust stockpile, to which is added the expense of reloading and redelivering.

MEN AT WORK

The daily tasks of thousands... on land and sea ... form the strong heart of this prosperous province

The heart of a nation is its "Men at Work"—the dollars they receive in wages are its life blood. As the heart is strong and the life blood full, so the body is healthy. As the numbers of "Men at Work" mount, the wage money rises and the country and its people prosper. Consolidated's "Men at Work" received $18 million in wages last year. Eight thousand employees helped themselves, their families, and our great province to prosperity because throughout the entire year they could count themselves among B.C.'s "Men at Work."

TESTS PROVE LIBBY'S ARE EXTRA EASY TO DIGEST

Exclusive Homogenization Process Makes
Libby's Baby Foods Ten Times
Finer in Texture

Because a baby's digestive system is immature, his first fruits and vegetables often cause digestive upsets. Even foods which have been carefully strained contain many coarse fibres and unbroken food cells, and they require over two hours for complete digestion.

But Libby's Foods, which are first strained and then Homogenized, may be completely digested in about thirty minutes. This is because Libby's exclusive Homogenization process explodes the food cells to release the nourishment. The extra fine texture makes these foods extra easy to digest.

FREE BOOKLET on Infant Feeding
Mothers who wish to learn more about the exclusive advantages which Libby's Homogenization process gives, are invited to write for the free booklet, "Healthful Feeding for Your Baby". Just send your name and address to Libby's, Chatham, Ontario, and a copy will be forwarded to you.

British Auto Speed King Prepares For Assault On Own Record

This is a side-view of the streamlined car John Cobb, London, fur broker, will pilot over the salt flats in an effort to better his own world mark of 368.7 miles per hour. The nonchalant Briton hopes to go 390 miles an hour and said that he doesn't think there is "any danger, really," in driving an automobile at that speed.

The six-foot two-inch Englishman with the ruddy face and thinning gray hair is shown with his wife after leaving the Queen Elizabeth en route to Utah and his assault on the speed record. Between 1933 and 1939 Cobb broke every known speed record on one kilometre up to 24 hours. Cool John's only expressed fear on arrival in New York was what would happen when he turned his wife loose on a shopping spree!

Queen Elizabeth's 47th Birthday Today

LONDON (Reuter) — Queen Elizabeth was celebrating her 47th birthday today as a quiet family anniversary.

This evening there will be a small family dinner party at Buckingham Palace, at which Queen Mary, the King's mother, was present.

Messages of congratulation and good wishes for the Queen reached Buckingham Palace from all over the empire today.

The Queen spent the early part of the day at Windsor with the King and the two princesses.

The DOCTOR Says:

WELL-WATER POISONING MAKES BLUE BABIES

By WILLIAM A. O'BRIEN, M.D.

Infants may be poisoned by drinking milk formulae made with well water which contains an excess of nitrates. Reports from various sections of the country indicate that the condition is more common than has been realized.

Usual story is that the infant appeared to be all right in the hospital, but shortly after being brought home he turned blue and was weak and listless. Congenital heart disease was suspected but the idea was discarded when it was recalled that the infant turned blue after being fed a mixture of milk, sugar and water.

In each case analysis of the well water by the health department showed that it contained an excess of nitrates.

Blue babies with well-water poisoning suffer from a chemical change in the hemoglobin, or red coloring matter, in their blood, which prevents the oxygen of the air from uniting with their red cells. The changed hemoglobin in these babies is called methemoglobin, a substance also found in other forms of chemical poisoning.

Treatment of well-water poisoning is injections of dilute solutions of a dye called methylene blue which changes the methemoglobin back to normal hemoglobin. If methylene blue injections are given in large doses, it may make matters worse.

Milk mixtures containing the harmful water should be stopped.

Water containing an excess of nitrates is not harmful for adults or older children, according to tests of blood of families who used the water which poisoned young infants.

BOILING WILL NOT PURIFY
Nitrate water cannot be purified by boiling. Well water containing an excess of nitrates is found in shallow dug (not driven) wells. In most cases these wells are located near a barn, and either have no casing or the casing has broken.

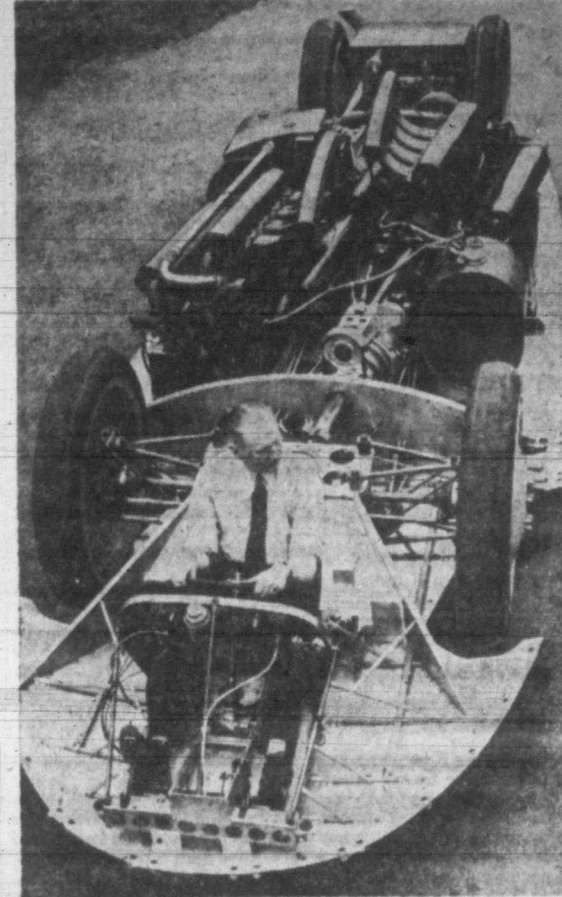

Majority are not protected against surface drainage and over two-thirds of such wells which were examined in one state showed contamination with bowel germs. In other cases the root of a tree had grown into the well.

QUESTION — Our 20-year-old son has been treated for asthma for some time. As he expectorates large quantities of sputum, is there any possibility that he may have bronchiectasis?

ANSWER — Consult your physician about the possibility, and if he thinks it might be present he can make a special examination.

PAUSE FOR REFRESHMENT IN CAIRO — Roaming merchant who sells "earkooos," a delicious iced-tea-like drink in streets of Cairo, is seen making a sale. A cake of ice protrudes from the container.

This shot shows what makes Cobb's Raiton Mobil Special tick. It was taken while they were adding finishing touches on the streamlined racer which is equipped with two 1,250-horsepower, 12-cylinder Napier engines. Assistants seal Cobb in with a 400-pound cowl that fits over the chassis. It is lifted on and off by means of a crane.

Commerce Chamber President Scores Russian Attitude

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) —

Earl O. Shreve, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, asserted today his belief that Soviet Russia's rejection of the Marshall plan "will be rated by history as the greatest single crime of totalitarianism."

Shreve told the northeastern Institute the Russian decision to shun participation in the American program for aid to war-impooverished nations was "in a class with the Berlin-Moscow pact which touched off a global war."

"It is a crime whose principal victims are the teeming millions under the Kremlin's domination," he contended.

Shreve accused Russia of pursuing a "strategy of delay, obstruction and prolonged chaos" in the conviction that "a major capitalist collapse" was imminent.

"They're stalling for time so that they may be ready to pick up the pieces when the smash-up comes," he said.

Courtenay Wedding Of Interest Here

MISS JOAN MACDONALD

MR. KENNETH FAIRBAIRN

Mr. and Mrs. John Macdonald, Courtenay, B.C., announce the engagement of their only daughter, Joan Louise, to Mr. John Kenneth Fairbairn, younger son of Mrs. Emily Fairbairn and the late Mr. Maurice G. Fairbairn of Comox, B.C. The marriage will take place on Aug. 30 in St. Peter's Anglican Church at Comox. Miss Macdonald, who received her education at St. Margaret's School and Oak Bay High School, Victoria, has invited her cousin, Miss Mona Riach, Seattle; Miss June Martin and Miss Margaret Bracken of Victoria to be her attendants. Mr. Fairbairn, who served with the rank of flight lieutenant in the R.C.A.F. for four and a half years during the war, plans to attend University of British Columbia in the fall. He is affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Connorton who have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. L. Powers, "Langford Lodge," Langford Lake, returned to their home in Vancouver on Sunday.

Miss Tim Castle went across to Vancouver on Saturday afternoon to spend the week-end with Miss Pat Dorrance and to attend a dance Saturday evening in the mainland city in honor of Miss Dorrance, who is to be married Aug. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spedding and their daughter, Jean, have returned to their home on Old Esquimalt Road after a two-week vacation trip in the United States in which they visited Eureka, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Reno, Seattle, Portland and Olympia.

Dr. and Mrs. H. Mobius, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Goldring, Bessborough Road, for the past month, have returned to their home in Los Angeles. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Goldring and Dr. and Mrs. Mobius spent some time at Lake Crescent in the State of Washington before the California visitors continued their journey south.

Miss Mollie Powers and Mrs. A. M. Connorton were tea hour hostesses Friday afternoon at "Langford Lodge," Langford Lake, in honor of their mother, Mrs. L. Powers, who was celebrating a birthday. The rooms were gay with summer flowers and the guest of honor received a gardenia corsage bouquet from members of St. Matthew's Guild. Invited guests were Mrs. D. Graves, Vancouver, Mrs. A. Kent, Mrs. A. B. Brown, Mrs. H. M. McKenzie, Mrs. H. S. Hincks and Miss L. M. A. Savory.

Miss Marge Coton and Miss Beth Brown were hostesses at the tea hour at the Crystal Garden in honor of Miss Nora Martin, who is to be married this month. The guest of honor was presented with a corsage bouquet and a china set. Her sister, Mrs. Brownie Fielden, and the groom-elect's mother, Mrs. J. Dickson, were presented with corsage bouquets of pink carnations and mauve sweet peas. Other guests were Mesdames J. Coates, V. Scott, B. Craig, A. Hall, E. Kirkendall, N. Squires, K. Thorburn, B. Bayliss, and Misses J. Mair, F. Tickle, R. Collis, C. Macdonald, E. Davis and E. Knight.

Miss Wilma Renouf, an August bride-elect, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower on Friday evening, when Mrs. E. M. Howell and her daughter, Miss Dale Howell, entertained at their home, 1734 Davie Street. Corsage bouquets were presented to the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. N. Renouf, and Mrs. David Anderson, mother of the groom-elect. The gifts were presented in a decorated shoe. Guests were Mesdames S. Rogers, W. Renouf, E. Dawson, M. La Pointe, G. Caddick, R. Rogers, H. Rogers, L. Anderson, G. Hunter, B. Burns, Neillans, L. Hamilton, Bradshaw, and Misses Maureen Renouf, Marion Page, Maureen Castleton, Norma Dunn, Betty Rendall, June Yates, Lorna Webb, Bette Greenfield, Marjorie Gibbs, Idina Pike, Mary Neillans, Elaine Impey, Dorothy Ellis and Phyllis Corbett.

Miss Nordine Stenmark was hostess at her home, 1024 Pendergast Street, in honor of Miss Mary Curt, who is to be married on Wednesday. On arrival the honor guest was presented with a corsage bouquet of yellow gladioli tips and the gifts arranged in a replica of a wedding cake. The rooms were decorated with pink and white summer flowers and the refreshment table centred with a low arrangement of summer blossoms in the same shades. Miss Doris Stenmark and Miss Eileen MacLean assisted the hostess as servitors. Other guests were Mrs. M. Curt, Regina; Mesdames R. Morgan, O. L. Stenmark, J. McMartin, D. Lyon, Misses Meg McMartin, Ruth Nybo, Betty Dahl, Norma and Rose Tucker, Joyce Whitehead, Frances Patterson, Ruth Reid, Lois McIntosh and Irene Mottishaw.

Mrs. Nell McNeill of Nanaimo and her two children, Maureen and Murray, are staying at "Haptholme," Langford Lake, the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luney.

Mayor Ernest Mallory of Olympia, Wash., with Mrs. Mallory and their two children, Kenny and Sharron, arrived in the inner harbor today on their yacht, the Pamanus II. They were accompanied by Mrs. Mallory's father, Mr. Frank Kenny, and Miss Gannett Hathaway of Olympia.

Mr. and Mrs. Maitland Reade, Miss Ann Louise Dick and Miss Lorraine Manzer, who came from Vancouver, for All Sooke Day, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Manzer, Sooke, during the week. Miss Dick and Miss Manzer will continue their holiday on Vancouver Island this week.

Miss Irene Byatt, who leaves for New York and Toronto on Tuesday, was honored Saturday when Mrs. T. Crabbe entertained at a farewell luncheon at the Douglas restaurant. A corsage bouquet of sweet peas and carnations was presented to Miss Byatt. Other guests were Mrs. Clayton Peters, Miss Flo Byatt and Miss Evelyn McGonigle.

Miss Jean Quennell, an August bride-elect, was honored at a community miscellaneous shower at Youbou, V.I., last Thursday evening. A corsage bouquet was presented to the honor guest with the gifts arranged in a miniature house. Her mother, Mrs. C. Quennell of Victoria, introduced to the guests by Mrs. Rubens, also received a corsage bouquet. Refreshments were served with Mrs. J. Brooks presiding at the tea table. There were 160 invited guests.

Mrs. R. Bugslag was a tea hour hostess Sunday afternoon at her home, 1209 Princess Avenue, in honor of Miss Mary Hallberg, who is to be married on Saturday evening. Corsage bouquets were presented to the honor guest, her mother, Mrs. R. Hallberg and the mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. A. C. Smith. The tea table covered with a hand crocheted lace cloth was centred with a bowl of yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. T. Mitchell, an aunt of the groom-elect, presided at the urns. There were 25 guests present.

Marion Braithwaite Married Saturday

A wedding of interest both here and in Powell River took place Saturday evening at Fairfield United Church, when vows were exchanged between Miss Marion Jean Braithwaite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Braithwaite, 1174 Chapman Street, and the late E. Victor Braithwaite, and William John Gallagher, Powell River, son of Mr. B. Gallagher, Vancouver, and the late Mrs. Gallagher. Masses of cosmos, marguerites, sweet peas and gypsophila, decorated the church for the service, performed by Rev. H. J. Armistage.

Mrs. S. H. Darvill presided at the organ and soloist was Miss Margaret Husband, who sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

Lester Patrick gave the bride in marriage. She wore a hoop-skirted gown of white moire silk fashioned with sweetheart neckline, lily point sleeves, long fitted bodice buttoned down the back. Her full-length veil was caught to her hair with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and swansonia. Miss Marjorie Braithwaite attended her sister as maid of honor. Her off-the-shoulder gown featured a blue nylon net skirt with gathered peplum and she carried a Colonial bouquet. A coronet of pink carnations was in her hair.

Bridesmaids Lillian Jacklin and Dorothy Gallagher, a sister of the groom, were gownned respectively in pale green and pink crepe. They wore coronets of yellow carnations and carried bouquets of matching flowers. The groom's brother, Betram Gallagher, stood with him as best man and ushers were Robert Ross and Robert Jealousy.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride for relatives and close friends. Mrs. Braithwaite assisted in receiving guests.

Table decorations were carried out in pink and white with a two-tier wedding cake centring the refreshment table. Robert Jealousy proposed the toast to the bride.

For a honeymoon trip motor-ing up-island, Mrs. Gallagher changed to a cinnamon brown gabardine suit with matching coat, blue and brown accessories and a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses.

The young couple will reside at Powell River, B.C.

Sisters Leave For East To Continue Musical Studies

Miss Irene Byatt, left, and Miss Florence Byatt, right, and mother, Mrs. M. Byatt, will leave Tuesday for Seattle en route to New York and Toronto where the sisters will continue their music studies. Miss Irene, well known in Victoria music circles, has been singing most of her life, but it has only been in the last four years that she has seriously cultivated her rich dramatic contralto voice. She travels with a letter of introduction to Mr. Edward Johnson, head of the Metropolitan Opera House, and hopes to audition for him. Miss Florence Byatt, a member of the staff of the Motor Branch, Provincial Police, for the past 10 years, will continue her piano studies in Toronto. While in New York Mrs. Byatt plans to visit her sister, Mrs. F. Mason, who she has not seen for 23 years. The Byatt family will eventually make their home in Toronto.

Spend Honeymoon At Deep Cove, V.I.

Honeymooning at Deep Cove, V.I., are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Thompson, whose marriage took place in Vancouver recently at Saint John's Anglican Church.

Gladioli and sweet peas decorated the church where the bride and groom repeated their vows before Rev. N. D. B. Larmouth.

The bride, the former Miss Margaret Groome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Groome, 1418 Cook Street, was gownned in heavy white satin with embroidered net veil. She wore an amethyst pendant, set in seed pearls, an heirloom gift from her grandmother, and carried a bouquet of red Talisman roses, white gladioli and stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Patricia Millions, in her role as bridesmaid, chose a pink sheer with satin stripe, for her gown and carried a bouquet of carnations, sweet peas and white daisies.

Saint John's Anglican Church choir, of which the groom and two brothers are members, sang "O Perfect Love" accompanied by Mrs. George F. Bullen, organist.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Thompson of Vancouver, was attended by his brother H. C. Thompson.

At the reception held at Rainbow Wedding Reception Home, in Vancouver, solos were given by Miss Parkin and Mrs. Ralph Marsh.

After their honeymoon at Deep Cove, the young couple will reside at Dawson Creek, Y.T.

Do You Feel Nervous And All on Edge?

People suffering from loss of appetite and run-down condition with symptoms of nerve strain often need a nerve and general tonic. Glycero-Lecithin with Vitamin B(1) supplies tonic ingredients. It is especially beneficial for convalescents. By increasing the supply of Vitamin B(1) in the system, appetite is improved and the system thereby built up to normal if the loss of appetite was due to deficiency of Vitamin B(1) in the diet. $1.00 at all Cunningham Drug Stores and other drug stores. ## Fragile Laces Frost Cool Black Sheers

Eye-catching inserts of lace and net add lively touches to midsummer's little black dress. Black costume suit, left, frilled with net and lace, has matching insert curving around the waist of the jacket and calling attention to the pouf-folds draped in back. Self-fabric appliques on the black crepe sheath, centre, are rimmed with black net; black chiffon apron is applied to match. Right, flesh marquisette yoke on this black crepe is banded with black velvet ribbon.

NEW YORK—This year, black crepe steals the scenes from midsummer sheers but yields spectacular spots to peep-shows of net and lace.

These peep-shows are billed as sleeve and waist inserts, chin-chucking dandy frills and jabots, yokes and aprons of net, lace, marquisette and chiffon.

Bandings of black lace, incised below the shoulder line of crepe dresses, are decoys used to flag onlookers' eyes to new full sleeves. Crepe suits owe their femme fatale look to lace or net, used to edge jackets or add peek-a-boo interest to hemlines of skirts.

Frills of black lace and net climb from the collarless necklines of suits in true Beau Brummel fashion. On one engaging costume suit, Stein Blaine-designed, matching inserts of peek-a-boo stuff curve the waist and give it the illusion of hand-spanning size. The pouf-fold, back-draped jacket of this suit is a midsummer forecast of silhouette interest for fall.

Afternoon dresses lose none of their allure by switching from see-through sheers to opaque crepes. Richer for the swap are figure-moulding dresses topped by bare-looking yokes of flesh-tinted marquisette. Custom designer Nicole de Paris gives one such dress more of a portrait-gown look by accenting the yoke with a "necklace" of black velvet ribbon.

To show the skin and whoop up the allure, another headliner for afternoon wear is detailed with self-fabric applique, rimmed with black net. On this sheath of black crepe, also Stein Blaine-designed, a saucy apron skirt of black chiffon relieves the severity of the silhouette.

HISTORIC MEDICAL HIGHLIGHTS—No. 14

Killer of the Scourge

An English milkmaid with a cowpox infection... a small boy vaccinated with matter from the hand of the milkmaid... result: immunity to dreaded smallpox... without danger, almost without discomfort. That simple-sounding event took place in 1796, testing a revolutionary theory of Dr. Edward Jenner. Years of observation and study went into that successful effort, and while the world accepted this great discovery skeptically and reluctantly, through the years, smallpox has been reduced from a major killer to a matter of proper vaccination control.

Today's vaccines, serums and biological preparations are scientifically prepared. Our prescription and biological department carries only the purest, highest quality preparations.

In Step With Style

Eighteenth Century—Reminiscent of 18th century portrait gowns seen in museum masterpieces are the new extravagant feminine boudoir fashions. In translating the bygone century's frou frou into modern negligees, designers are aided and abetted by fabulous fabrics of pure silk satin, imported Swiss and English net.

Wise Choice—In choosing her summer playclothes, the pint-size girl with short legs will look better in short shorts. As for the girl with stocky legs, she will look better in slacks that conceal faults than in knee-length pants which point them up. Pedal pushers will more than oblige the girl who can afford to show off her decorative pins. They will also help a tall, slim girl in her plot to make her legs look less lanky.

Dancing Cottons—Semi-formal cotton dresses that inspire a girl to tuck flowers in her hair, tie on a ribbon sash and step lively to a dance tune bow back into fashion. Not since the era when the dimity or mull dress wowed the square-dance stag line has the full-skirted and sash-tied cotton frock had such a fling. The success of this fashion is assured wherever dining or dancing calls for a dress which needs to be a bit formal but not formal enough for floor-sweeping finery.

Headlines—Hemlines creep lower and hats carry their weight higher. These are two of the most revolutionary changes seen in fall fashions. Skirts are longer by five inches or more, fall in uneven drapery, slash to expose legs, and boast as much as 196 inches of sweep. Hats are weighty, wide or point skyward with lance-like feathers; their function for fall is to balance the longer, fuller skirts.

Fashion's Curves—Shifting the curves of the fashion anatomy is engaging many designers in undercover work. They are blimping out hips and shrinking in waistlines with prefabricated "contours" that make use of both crinoline and corsets. Boned and back-laced "minimizers" are Hat-tie Carnegie's gift to the waistline that needs dwarfing. Her modern device is capable of a squeeze-play reminiscent of the old-time stays, a bed post and an obliging knee. In the Carnegie corset, a waist is minimized and hips are magnified.

Movie Actor Faces 3 Court Actions; Will Take Rest

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Canadian Mark Stevens, who has acquired fame and also a world of grief in the last two years, plans an early escape. After "The Snake Pit" he hopes to visit his parents in Canada and get a complete rest.

Mark, who only recently got out of bed, is faced with three court actions, one for divorce. He is homeless and has been through a long recuperation from a back injury. He has an ulcer. He needs a rest.

The actor, who was born in Cleveland, O., but whose home from an early age was in Montreal, blames "Hollywood phonies" for his marital break-up. His rumored romance with Hedy Lamarr isn't so, he said; they are merely old friends. Incidentally, the only photographs in his dressing room are of his estranged wife, Annette.

SUMMER FARE

Gregory Peck will fly to New York next week to finish work on "Gentleman's Agreement" and then return to La Jolla, where he'll spend the summer. . . the Ingrid Bergman film, "Joan of Lorraine," will not be quite as gigantic as planned. The battle scenes are being cut down because of the expense involved.

MORE PERSONALITIES

June Havoc has been tested for the Brackett and Wilder film, "Foreign Affairs," and may be added to the cast headed by Jean Arthur and John Lund. There is doubt that Marlene Dietrich will accept the role because she would have to play a Nazi.

Henry Morgan will spoof the big town in his first picture, "So This is New York." The sharp-witted satirist will aim particularly at head waiters, cab drivers and other tip-hungry New Yorkers.

The John Mills, who have been house guesting with the Rex Harrisons, will return to England with the Harrisons in a fortnight.

Study English Caves As A-Bomb Shelters

MARSEILLE, France (Reuter)—Study of the caves of southern England as potential anti-atomic shelters will be the chief mission of 20 cave experts who left Marseille Saturday for London.

Invited by the Sussex Caves Club and the Speleological Societies of London, they will explore caves from the South Downs to Cornwall. Speleology is the study of caves.

The French experts have just carried out extensive official studies of caves in the south of France and in Corsica to see if they could be used as anti-atomic shelters.

Fear Of Third World War Found Prevalent In U.S.

PRINCETON, N.J.—Fear of a third world war continued widespread throughout the United States but it has not increased appreciably since the East-West split in Europe.

More than half the voters think there will be another major war within 10 years. Three out of every four believe it will certainly come within 25 years.

That outlook is gloomy enough. But it is no more gloomy than last April. Fear of war then was just about as high. Since April there have been fresh disagreements between Russia and the Western powers, but they apparently did not add greatly to the war jitters.

At regular intervals since early 1945 the Institute has conducted surveys to measure the public's fear of war. The results, forming a kind of war fever chart, are shown below. Two questions were put to separate but comparable cross-sections of voters as follows:

1. "Do you think the United States will find itself in another war within, say, the next 10 years?"

MOTHER SHOULD ADVISE GROOM AND FATHER SHOULD STEER BRIDE

When their children are about to be married, practically all parents have a belated impulse to take them aside and give them loads of good advice about how to make a success of the holy estate. This is all to the good. Heaven knows the youngsters need all the tips they can get about how to keep out of the divorce courts.

For the amazing thing about marriage is that it is a constant surprise. It is never like the bride and bridegroom thought it would be. It calls for an entirely different technique from the one they dreamed out in the days of courtship, and so any helpful hints on how to avoid getting in each other's hair and to walk high, wide and handsome around each other's peculiarities, is a godsend.

So-o-o-o it is undeniable that the newlyweds are in dire need of whatever wise counsel father and mother can give them on how to be happy though married. The advice is all right, but the trouble is that the wrong people give it. For mother hands out her little packet of admonitions to daughter and father wises up son on how to be a wife-tamer, when it should be the other way around.

Neither one speaks by the book, for no woman knows what qualifies a man wants in a wife, nor does any man know what

The trend of sentiment is of considerable historical interest because it shows that disillusionment set in very quickly after the end of World War II.

The European conflict ended in May, 1945, and the Japanese war in August. Within two months the Institute was finding a majority believing in the likelihood of war in 25 years, and within seven months, in March, 1946, nearly one-half of the voters (49 per cent) believed another war was coming inside 10 years.

married a good man, who was a good provider, but he wasn't a good husband, because he starved me to death for lack of love and appreciation, and made me feel that I was nothing but a household convenience."

And Pop might well say to his daughter: "The secret of being a good wife is to let your husband be happy in his own way and cherish the fond illusion that he is the head of the house. Ask advice, whether you take it or not. Fall in with his plans. Talk to him about the things he is interested in. Don't nag. Don't boss. And be jolly, even if you don't feel that you have anything to laugh at. Never forget that your husband is your youngest baby and needs the most looking after and coddling, and you will never lose him." Perhaps it is because so many young married couples get advice from the wrong ones that divorces are so common.

Actor Played Before 7,000,000 Troops

Dave Daggett, appearing in Republic's "Out California Way," playing at the Dominion Theatre tomorrow, spent 35 months producing, directing and acting in army shows in Africa, Italy, Arabia, Australia and India. He holds the record of entertaining more army personnel than any other actor, civilian or military.

When the late President Roosevelt met Chiang Kai-shek and Winston Churchill in the Mena House in Cairo, Daggett, who held the rank of private, entertained them with an hour and 40 minute program.

Attendance records at his performances passed the 7,000,000 mark shortly before he was honorably discharged. Daggett organized the show, "Meet the Army," consisting of 80 actors and two bands. He also supervised construction of three theatres, one of which seated 2,500 G.I.'s.

Irish Predominate In Atlas Movie

It was a great day for the Irish when Director John Farrow picked his cast for Paramount's hilarious comedy, "Easy Come, Easy Go," currently delighting audiences at the Atlas Theatre.

It's not an Irish picture, by a long shot, being a romantic comedy set in the crowded district of New York's picturesque Third Avenue. But Irish names predominate.

There's Barry Fitzgerald, of course, who takes the part of Diana Lynn's rascally father and tries to break up her romance with Sonny Tufts.

There's also Dick Foran, James Burke, Frank McHugh and Frank Faylen. Tom Dugan and Tom Fadden are other sons of Erin in the cast. Finally there is Miss Ida Moore, a true daughter of the Emerald Isle. And Kenneth Macgowan produced the picture.

BRUCE BENNETT discusses the exploits of "The Poet" with Dennis Morgan in a scene from "Cheyenne," a Warner Bros. drama of Wyoming in the 1870's. The action-packed film story had its local premiere at the Capitol Theatre today.

Where To Go Tonight

(As Advertised)

ATLAS—"Easy Come, Easy Go," starring Barry Fitzgerald.

CAPITOL—Dennis Morgan and Jane Wyman in "Cheyenne."

DOMINION—"Alexander's Ragtime Band," with Tyrone Power and Alice Faye.

OAK BAY—"Cockeyed Miracle," starring Keanan Wynn.

PLAZA—Jon Hall and Rita Johnson in "Michigan Kid."

RIO—"House on 92nd Street," starring Lloyd Nolan.

ROYAL—Cornel Wilde and Maureen O'Hara in "The Homestretch."

YORK—"A Bell for Adano," starring John Hodiak and Gene Tierney.

'Cheyenne' Opens At Capitol Theatre

Dennis Morgan, Jane Wyman, Janis Paige and Bruce Bennett portray the leading roles in Warner Bros. romantic outdoor drama of old Wyoming, "Cheyenne," which opens at the Capitol Theatre today. Other prominent players in the new adventure film include Alan Hale, Arthur Kennedy, John Ridgely, Barton MacLane, Tom Tyler and Bob Steele.

The screen-play was written by Alan LeMay and Thomas Williamson from a story by Paul I. Wellman. Raoul Walsh directed "Cheyenne," and Robert Buckner produced for the company.

York Theatre Books 'A Bell For Adano'

Out of the pages of John Hersey's Pulitzer prize-winning novel, "A Bell For Adano," hailed as a best seller, comes to the screen of the York Theatre today, the 20th Century-Fox magnificent picture starring Gene Tierney, John Hodiak and William Bendix.

Featured in the cast of the hit directed by Henry King are Glenn Langan, Richard Conte, Stanley Prager, Henry Morgan, Montague Banks, Reed Hadley and Roy Roberts.

ROYAL THEATRE

In one scene with Maureen O'Hara in "The Homestretch," Cornel Wilde wears an old, grey, wrinkled suit which obviously had seen better days. The scene is one in which Cornel is down on his luck and has spent several nights in jail, and Maureen, his wife in the technicolor film, arrives at the police station to bail him out.

It was the perfect suit for the scene in the film which is currently at the Royal Theatre. But few of the cast knew that it had been Cornel's wedding suit. He bought it in 1937 for his marriage to Patricia Knight. Things were extremely tough for the struggling young actor, and he wore it almost constantly for two years.

Refugees On Ship At Marseilles Get Better Rations Than British

By BOYD FRANCE

PORT DE BOUC, France (Reuter)—The 4,500 Jews who refused to land here six days ago, after being shipped, back to France from Palestine, are getting better rations than the British troops guarding them, and are sharing their fresh fruit and vegetables with their escort. I was told today when I visited the Ocean Vigour, one of the three British ships which brought them here.

(Louis Nevin, Associated Press correspondent who also visited the Ocean Vigour, said conditions aboard the ship are "unpleasant and uncomfortable but supportable." Nevin said he and three British newspaper men who accompanied him agreed the Ocean Vigour definitely "could not be considered a 'hell ship.'")

(The Associated Press correspondent said that the greatest discomfort for the 1,500 refugees aboard the Ocean Vigour arises from the crowded conditions and he added that "We suffered more from the heat in Port de Bouc and Marseilles than we did aboard the Ocean Vigour.")

One of the refugees, Henry Auerbach, said the refugees voted unanimously to send one large basket of French fruit and vegetables from their special ration each day to the British troops.

At least six immigrants assured me that the conduct of the 100 men of the British 6th Airborne Division had been above reproach since their departure from Haifa.

CHILDREN "ADOPTED"
More than two dozen of the children on board had been "adopted" by the soldiers, and were able to use troop quarters, they said.

Throughout the voyage, the British troops had given all their rationed vitamin pills to the children, as well as most of their candy.

The immigrants do not appear to have weakened in their refusal to disembark anywhere but in Palestine.

"We are getting very tired," one woman said, "but we will stay here if it kills us."

2 Disasters Brought Britain Low Says Churchill—War, Socialists

WOODSTOCK, Oxfordshire, Eng. (CP)—Winston Churchill, returning to active politics for the first time since an operation forced his temporary retirement last May, charged today that late and inadequate planning by Britain's Labor government had brought Britain to the brink of bankruptcy and starvation.

Addressing a crowd of 50,000 on the grounds of Blenheim Palace, his birthplace and the seat of the Duke of Marlborough, Britain's wartime leader said he could not have believed that "on the morrow of the German and Japanese surrenders so short a period of time could bring Britain so low."

Churchill said "almost exactly two years ago when we emerged victorious from the war and all our enemies had surrendered unconditionally we stood high in the world and our name and fame were celebrated in many lands." On the continent of Europe, he said, "we see countries which were conquered, ravaged and stripped by the enemy and were liberated by our strong arms, which already have restored a thriving, active life to our people."

"Cabinet ministers tell us every week-end how bad our position is and that the 12th hour will strike before the end of the year. The main facts are obvious to every thinking man or woman.

"Under the capitalist system of free enterprise we bred in Great Britain nearly 47,000,000 people, half of whose food came from beyond the seas but whose progress was constant and whose standard of living before the war was already the highest in Europe.

"Since then, two disasters have come upon us: the Second World War and the first Socialist government with a majority. By supreme exertions we surmounted the first disaster.

"The question which glares upon us today is: 'How shall we free ourselves from the second.'

"Proud Britain, who stood alone against the mighty tyrant, was now forced to live on foreign aid, and also to subject herself to 'privations worse than those of the war,' Churchill continued. "We are told that on Wednesday next the Prime Minister is to unfold another catalogue of pains and penalties which everyone must endure. In spite of all our warnings he has left action so late that I fear that his measures will not be equal to the emergency, and will be only another installment of privation, frustration and restriction along our downward path."

The Conservatives would "accept, support and endure any and all sensible proposals, however severe, that are truly made in the national interest. We shall support them not only in Parliament but also in our daily lives and work.

"On the other hand we shall oppose any proposals which we deem unwise or unnecessary or which are inserted for the purpose of pandering to class jealousy and party spite."

PLAZA THEATRE

Cinecolor cameras, recording with fidelity the hell-for-leather riding and exciting gunplay in Universal's "Michigan Kid," also established a note of contrast on the screen in presenting the many-hued backgrounds for the action sequences.

Locale of the romantic frontier drama, which stars Jon Hall, Victor McLaglen, Rita Johnson and Andy Devine, is the mythical Arizona town of Rawhide. Students of horticulture who view the filmization of the Rex Beach Novel, now at the Plaza Theatre, will recognize authentic Arizona wild flowers and landscape foliage, even though the scenes were made at Kernville, Calif. This phenomenal "gilding of the lily" was accomplished by the studio's painstaking greenery crew, under orders from Director Ray Taylor.

SUMMER SLUMP

The Warner lot was rocked last week when the lay-off set in. Employees were told to take vacations, some with, some without, pay. Some vacations will be permanent. Lowered production was given as the reason. The action resembled the old days when some studios would cease operations entirely during the summer.

JOHNS-MANVILLE

STRAIGHT FACTS
ON ROUNDHOUSE

Here are some straight facts about a Johns-Manville Built-up Roof that was installed on a railroad roundhouse way back in 1914. It has led the toughest sort of life. Along with the danger of sparks, it has constantly been up against destructive fumes from locomotives and extremes of heat and cold. After more than 30 years service, a recent inspection report reads—"Present Condition—highly satisfactory, good for many more years. Maintenance—none whatever."

Today, Johns-Manville Asbestos Built-up Roofs protect hundreds of buildings from fire, weather and wear. If you own a factory or office building, we suggest you get the facts on J-M Built-up Roofing from an interesting booklet, "Things You Should Know About Your Roof." For free copy, write on your company letterhead to Johns-Manville, 1206 Homer Street, Vancouver.

To Judge Fruits,
Jam, Home Cooking
At Langford Fair

LANGFORD—Mrs. M. A. Foulds, a representative from the B.C. Electric Cooking Department will judge the bottle fruit, jam and home cooking at the Langford Country Fair Wednesday, Aug. 6.

All entries must be at the fair, Goldstream, or at the local Community Hall by 11 in the morning. A noncompetitive handicraft display and weaving exhibition will be held. A display of dogs, comprising English springer puppies and adult dogs in black and white, also liver and white, will be staged.

Field events and sports will take place during the afternoon. Tea and refreshments will be served by Langford Parent-Teacher Association. A jitney dance will conclude the festivities each night, starting at 9.

Plan To Increase
German Coal Output

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Britain, embarking on a new phase of the postwar "Battle of the Ruhr," are shooting at a one-third increase in German coal output by year's end as a major contribution to the Marshall plan.

With Europe's economic recovery intimately involved, production now is running about 220,000 tons a day, only half the peak reached when Hitler's war machine was rolling at full speed.

The official hope is the tonnage can be stepped up to 300,000 in December, followed by further gains to 350,000 or more daily.

Diplomatic authorities who outlined these aims today, along with some of the headaches in trying to solve one of Europe's most important recovery problems, were cautiously optimistic the approaching huddle of Anglo-American experts here will give new impetus to the gradual gains made since VE-Day.

Exactly when the talks will start remains in doubt. Presumably, however, Prime Minister Attlee's report to Parliament Wednesday on Britain's economic plight will clear the way for his country's representatives to be on their way.

SUN'S HEAT SHOULD BE STRONG FOR BILLIONS OF YEARS

Some persons are afraid that the sun will lose its heat—that it will burn out—leaving the earth a "frozen world."

The sun has been giving light and heat for ages untold. No one can say for just how long, but scientists declare that thousands of millions of years have passed since the sun started to shine.

The sun is a mass of fiery gases. It is burning in a sense of the word, but the burning is different from what takes place in a bonfire. The modern view is that the sun gives heat and light because its atoms are exploding.

When we speak about the sun, we are likely to get into big figures. For example, the weight, or mass, of the sun has been estimated at 2,000 septillions of tons. It also has been estimated that

B.C.E.R. Staff Picnic At Shawnigan

Long-service employees of the B.C. Electric Vancouver Island Division were honored at Saturday's jubilee year picnic of the company when they were presented with engraved gold watches by W. C. Mainwaring, Vancouver Island vice-president, and E. W. Arnott, Vancouver, vice-president in charge of transportation. The recipients represented different departments of the company and each had the longest record in his particular department. Left to right: A. E. Collis, former traffic superintendent, now a pensioner; W. H. Gibson, mechanical department; R. D. Travis, customer services department; Miss C. M. Anthony, financial department; Mr. Mainwaring, S. W. Mackintosh, gas department; Mr. Arnott and D. Arnason, veteran operator of the transportation department. Longest record was that of Mr. Gibson, who has served 42 years with the company.

B.C. Electric employees, their families, sweethearts and friends, nearly 800 strong, journeyed on Saturday to Shawnigan Lake where they took part in the largest picnic the company has ever held on Vancouver Island in commemoration of the company's Golden Jubilee year.

Under bright warm skies, which lasted without a break throughout the day, the happy throng of picnicers took part in an extensive program of sports, special events, swimming and entertainment which commenced shortly after the arrival of the picnic train, and completed just before the eight-car special left for the return journey to Victoria.

A popular feature for the children during the day was a series of pony-rides on Shetland ponies. Another was the day-long search for pennies which the children conducted in a hay pile. Lunch and tea were served in the Shawnigan Lake Athletic Association Hall.

Visiting executives of the company attending the outing, besides Mr. Mainwaring and Mr. Arnott, were: Howard N. Walters, Vancouver, general sales manager; O. E. Peterson, Vancouver, personnel manager; E. N. Horsey, Vancouver Island operations manager; and E. Harrison, Vancouver Island financial officer.

Supervised swimming was in charge of Y.M.C.A. lifeguards, while representatives of St. John's Ambulance Association provided a large marquee where the minor hurts of the would-be athletes were attended.

J. W. Caspy, was general chairman of the committee which handled the outing, assisted by Miss M. Cavin, H. B. Gonder, W. E. Holland, Roy Lund, Miss V. Kearton, S. Naysmith, W. Mowat, Fiem Stewart, S. E. Neville, A. W. J. Smith, E. F. Fox, H. Sabiston and Alex Molesworth.

Among the featured special events was the "Mr. B.C. Electric Jubilee" contest in which those attending had to seek out an unknown "Mr. B.C. Electric Jubilee" to win a scrip prize. It wasn't until near the end of the day that he was finally located in the person of Ernie Armitage, the company's office boy. Winner was Miss Marjorie Tindall.

Dodgers Drop Third Straight To Chicago

Chicago Cubs are raising a National League question which will take a while to answer: Will Brooklyn Dodgers fold as they did in 1942 and 1946?

The Cubs won their third straight from the Dodgers Sunday with a 6 to 0 shellacking and now the Brooks have only a seven-game lead over St. Louis Cardinals at the top of the league.

Only four days ago the Dodgers were riding on the wings of a spectacular 13-game winning streak, 11 of the triumphs coming in the west, and fans were predicting dire things for Charlie Grimm's Cubs, the Dodgers' final foe of the western swing. The Cubs had not beaten the Dodgers since May 19, having lost 10 straight to the Brooks.

The Cards, far from through after absorbing three setbacks last week from the Dodgers, over the Philadelphia Phillies to bounce back with three wins climb back into the number one challenging spot, seven games away, but only five in the important losing side.

The Cards outslugged the Phillies 10 to 8 at St. Louis, piling up innings. The Phils, helped by an 8 to 1 lead in the first six three-run homer by ex-Redbird Harry Walker, tallied seven times in the last three innings, but a wild throw by Walker in the last half of the eighth enabled the Cards to score two unearned runs and win the game.

New York Giants remained a half game in back of the Cards by defeating the Pirates 11 to 8 and then battling to a 6 to 6 tie in the second game of a doubleheader at Pittsburgh. The Giants hit three home runs, but the Bucs smashed six. Hank Greenberg crashed three to bring his season's total to 20.

YANKS BOOST LEAD

The New York Yankees went 13½ games ahead of the field in the American League, their widest margin yet, in defeating Cleveland Indians 5 to 4 while the second-place Boston Red Sox absorbed a 10 to 3 drubbing from Detroit Tigers.

Larry (Yogi) Berra drove in the winning run for the Yanks in the last half of the ninth with a long fly which scored Bobby Brown from third. Allie Reynolds, although touched for homers by Joe Gordon and George Metkovich, the 16th and 17th he's allowed this season, won his 13th game.

The Tigers hammered five Red Sox pitchers for 16 hits, including a two-run homer by Hoot Evers, while Hal Newhouser scattered 10 blows in recording his 11th victory of the season. The win moved the third-place Bengals to within a half game of the Sox.

Lanky Ewell Blackwell's string of consecutive complete games was snapped at 13 as Cincinnati Reds and Boston Braves split a doubleheader. The Braves whipping the Reds and Blackwell 4 to 2 in the opener, and the Reds winning the second 6 to 1. Charlie Barrett won the opener and Ken Raffensberger the nightcap.

A. Beisser, Mrs. Crow Lift Tennis Crowns

Arnold Beisser, 21-year-old medical student from Le Land Stanford University, was named the 50th men's singles champion of British Columbia in the final round play of the provincial lawn tennis championships Saturday at the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club.

Beisser won a 6-4, 6-4, 6-1 victory from bespectacled Mervyn Miller, his fellow student and doubles partner.

Both men played the same type of game, namely, serve hard and rush to the net for a killing volley. Miller stuck close to his opponent for the first two sets and was Beisser's equal in all departments except service. One service break gave Beisser each of the first two sets, while in the third he broke through a tiring Miller twice to go out at 6-1.

June Crowe, Santa Monica, became the women's champion when she ousted attractive Arvilla McGuire, Berkeley, in straight sets, 6-4, 8-6. Miss McGuire had good leads in both sets, but was unable to consolidate her position against a more experienced opponent. Both women played beautifully and some of the rallies were so spirited that the gallery soon were paying more attention to the ladies than the men. Later in the afternoon Mrs. Crowe added the women's doubles crown to her collection when, with Gwen Greenlee, they turned back the challenge of Miss McGuire and Grace Logie in straight sets, 7-5, 6-4.

Bennett loses

Henry Bennett, city champion, partnered with Jim Livingstone of San Francisco, came literally within an ace of holding his provincial title before he and his partner were beaten out in a five-setter by Paul Haupt and George Kraft. Scores of the two and one-half hour match were, 8-10, 4-6, 6-2, 7-5, 6-4. Bennett and Livingstone played unbeatable tennis in the first two sets, neither losing a service in 28 games. Livingstone was the first to crack, losing his service twice in the third set as Haupt and Kraft took advantage of a momentary lapse by their opponents. Play was tense and cautious in the 12-game fourth set, and again Livingstone had the misfortune to lose service in the last game as Haupt and Kraft closed in to the net. Henry and Jim jumped into a commanding three love lead in the deciding set. However, Livingstone lost a great chance to go to love four, and two games later the match was all square again as Bennett dropped his first service game of the match after leading forty love. With the score at 3-3, Haupt and Kraft scented victory and forcing their opponents into costly errors, smashed through to a 6-4 win, forcing Livingstone to miss a volley on their first match point and thus end a match that had the gallery on the edge of their seats for the last two sets.

To close the day's card Mrs. Crowe snatched her third title when she partnered Paul Haupt to down Livingstone and Gwen Greenlee in a straight set mixed doubles final. J. C. I. Edwards became veterans singles champion when he unseated last year's holder, Carl Brand, in a three-set struggle. Earlier, Brand had won the men's consolation singles with a three-set win from Jack Parker after the latter had held no less than five match points.

Buddy Behrens U.S. Junior Tennis Champ

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—Herbert (Buddy) Behrens of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., whizzed through Richard Mouldouso, New Orleans; La. 6-2, 6-1, 6-1 Sunday to annex the 1947 United States junior tennis title.

Several Canadians competed in the tournament but only one, Lorne Main of Vancouver, got past the first two rounds. Main, Canadian junior titlist, was eliminated in the fourth round.

Fish-Game Club Meeting Tomorrow

The Victoria Fish and Game Protective Association will hold its monthly meeting in the Boiler-makers' Hall, Government Street, tomorrow night at 8. Officials of the sportsmen's club point out that to date in the two-month derby the 39-pounder weighed in by Ernie Lee still heads the list.

Play will continue throughout the week on the various greens of Greater Victoria. Today the competitors were engaged in men's and women's rinks.

510 Lawn Bowling Entries

With 510 competitors, including a large number from out-of-town, the 20th annual tournament of the Greater Victoria Lawn Bowling Association got under way today. Official opening took place on the Beacon Hill greens of the Victoria Club.

William Halliday, president of the Victoria Lawn Bowling Club, rolled the first jack and Alderman F. G. Mulliner rolled the first ball. H. Milnes, tournament president gave the opening address.

Play will continue throughout the week on the various greens of Greater Victoria. Today the competitors were engaged in men's and women's rinks.

Negro Ball Nines To Play All-Star Team

Ford's California Tigers and the Oakland Larks, a pair of negro baseball teams of the Pacific Coast Negro Baseball League will be seen in action at Athletic Park this week against an all-star senior A club.

Tomorrow night at 6:30 the California Tigers will play the senior league representatives managed by Bob Weiland of the Legion. Friday the Oakland Larks will play the all-stars at 6:30.

All-star team follows: Smith, Gordon, Taylor, Morrison, Wright, Barber, Walker, Dale, Anderson, C. Padgett, W. Prior, R. Prior, S. Davies, J. Worrell.

Rainiers Beaten Twice By Portland; Seals-Angels Split

Fancy pitching marked Sunday games involving the Coast League baseball leaders as Los Angeles made its pace margin six games and second place Oakland dropped to only a half-game edge over San Francisco.

The Angels, by finishing out the week in first place, qualified to be host for the P.C.L. all-star game here Aug. 11. They'll play the pick of the other seven clubs.

Most spectacular of the hurling chores was Cliff Melton's one-hitter for San Francisco as the Seals shut out Los Angeles, 3 to 0, in the first game. The Angels came back to take the nightcap, 3 to 2, as Cliff Chambers won his 18th, allowing the Seals seven hits.

Hollywood took Oakland into camp, 6 to 5 and 5 to 0, taking the series six games to one. The nightcap shutout was on George (Pinky) Woods three-hit pitching.

The Portland Beavers took two from Seattle, 11 to 9 and 3 to 2, giving them the series, 6 to 1. Two weeks ago the Beavers dropped nine out of 12 games to Seattle. The first game was a free-hitting affair, Seattle out-hitting the Beavers, 17 to 14.

The Portland left fielder, Dick Wenner, won the nightcap with a homer over the fence in the fourth to break a 2 to 2 tie. In Sacramento the Solons and San Diego divided their twin bill, the first going to San Diego, 12 to 5, and the second to Sacramento, 14 to 7.

Starting Pitchers Fail Victoria Twice

Victoria Athletics were on their way to Salem for a three-game series after winding up their engagement with the W.L.L.-leading Spokane Indians Sunday by dropping two games 6 to 3 and 3 to 1. The double win gave the Indians the series three games to two, the A's having won Saturday night 12 to 8. After the Salem stand the Athletics move over to Yakima for four games, returning home a week tonight against Wenatchee.

Athletics continued to hold fourth spot in the league by a three and one-half game bulge over Tacoma and Vancouver, tied for fifth place.

Failure of the starting hurlers to come through cost the A's both games Sunday. In the opener Jim Arnold was blasted for four hits and six runs in three innings. Southpaw Ray Fortier, who took over in the fourth, gave up one hit and one walk in five innings. Second game saw Bob Jensen attempt another starting assignment and go out after one and a third innings after walking three men. Joe Blenkinskip took over in the second and was nipped for the winning runs in the seventh to be the loser.

SMART PITCHING

Five-hit pitching by Sam Latino and a home run and triple by outfielder Jake Phillips marked Spokane's play in the first game. Victoria scored one run in the second inning when Mastro reached first on an error and scored on a wild pitch. Phillips' homer in the same inning tied the score. Spokane scored five runs in the second after two were out. Billy Dunn doubled, Buddy Hicks walked, Bob Morgan scored them with a double. Schmees reached first on an error. Then Phillips tripled to score them both. Victoria's final two runs in the sixth came on an infield error and singles by Hooper, Harshman and Mastro.

In the second game the A's ran up against another five-hit pitching performance by Werbowksi. Of the five Hooper got three of them, the other two going to Cavalli and Harshman.

After Spokane got one run in the first frame the clubs played scoreless ball until the top of the seventh—when Harshman clouted his 30th home run of the season to tie the score. However, Spokane came back in their half to push two runs across and that was the ball game.

Spokane's lead today stood at two and one-half games.

Bremerton and Salem, second and third-place clubs, respectively, split a Sunday doubleheader. Bremerton went two extra innings in Sunday's first game to win 3 to 2 over Salem only to have the Oregonians come back in the finale for a similar 3 to 2 verdict.

Wenatchee took a pair from Tacoma, 12 to 4 and 4 to 3—the second in 11 innings—to shove the Tacomans back to an even 500 per centage.

Pitching dominated the Bremerton-Salem bill with the former's Bill Ahearn holding the Oregonians to six blows and garnering three himself for his eighth win. Wyatt gave up but seven hits in taking his 14th win as Salem took the nightcap.

ERRORS COSTLY

After Wenatchee has smashed out its 12 to 4 opening game win, Tacoma came back to take a 3 to 1 lead in the second tilt only to have its fielding fall apart. Three Tacoma errors in the fifth inning combined with one Wenatchee hit, scored two runs and tied the game. Ted Greenhalgh's single scoring Jim Zinn broke up the contest in the 11th to give Wenatchee a 3 to 1 edge in the series.

Short scores follow:

Vets Split At Chemainus; Duncan Thumps Gasmen

Faced with a heavy week-end schedule that threatened to play havoc with his hurling corps, coach Bob Weigand of the Canadian Legion threw Jack Walker, his regular centrefielder, at Chemainus in the second game of yesterday's twin bill, and the big fellow came through with a 6 to 2 victory to give Vets an even split with the up-island nine. Chemainus won the first game 10 to 6.

Playing here, Pitzer and Nex slipped to within half a game of last-place Navy by absorbing a 9 to 1 thumping from the hard-hitting Duncan nine.

Southpaw Eric Gard was the big noise in the Duncan All-Stars win over the gasmen. He gave up two doubles for one run in the first inning and then let the locals down with two singles the rest of the route. Doug Prest,

Cards Not Leaving St. Louis--Breadon

ST. LOUIS (AP)—As long as Sam Breadon maintains an interest in baseball, St. Louis will be represented in the National League, the 71-year-old owner of the Cardinals said today in commenting on the latest proposition to move one major league ball club out of the city.

In today's issue of the Sporting News, national baseball weekly published here, a story appears which quotes Fred Frick, National League president, as recommending moving the Cardinals to Chicago, giving the Windy City three major league clubs.

"In the first place," said Breadon, "I understand that Frick did not broach the idea of moving the Cardinals to Chicago."

He added: "In the second place, I don't plan to move the Cardinals. As long as I am in baseball, they will be here. The St. Louis public has patronized the club well."

FANS CAME THROUGH

From the fans came these gifts: Sterling service for 12; a one-ton truck to be shipped to Bobby's mink ranch in Illahe, Ore.; a tractor fully equipped; a set of mink; a portable overseas radio from "megaphone lolly" Hopkins of Providence, R.I. ## OVER THE FENCE

"I was talking to an Englishman from my old home town," said the old timer as he leaned on the fence in his neighborly way. "He's just over on a visit, but he told me he'd like to get over here to live. He doesn't much like the way things are going over there."

"He's a workman, and he voted Labor, thinking that some planned economy, as they call it, would be good for the country and for the workman. But, he says, already it has gone far enough to make him realize one thing, that the planners can't ever stop."

"They bring in one control. Then they find that to make the first control effective they have to have another one. And the second control makes it essential to have another one. And so it goes. There's no stopping. It has to go that way because there is no other way. And all the time the government departments and bureaux keep on multiplying, and all the time the workman and his wife have less and less to say about where they will live and how they will spend their money and how their children are going to be educated, and so forth."

"He says if I went to England now I'd be amazed at the difference in their way of living. There's a government control on pretty nearly everything now, and more coming all the time. And it isn't as if the planners were improving much of anything. Things keep on getting worse, and that means more planning."

"He says he's tired of it," and, added the old timer, "from what he tells me, I don't wonder."

(The old timer's views are presented in this newspaper each week under the sponsorship of the British Columbia Federation of Trade and Industry.)

Albino Killer Whale Is Seen By Picknickers At Witty's

The gleaming white killer whale turned up at Witty's Beach Sunday noon in time to provide an interesting afternoon for local bathers and picknickers.

Dr. Clifford Carl, director of the provincial museum, who is following the animal's travels with keen interest, said the albino was last seen off Port Hardy, on the east coast of Vancouver Island, exactly a month ago.

Since her first appearance before the public a year ago off Race Rocks, the whale has been seen off points along the entire circumference of the island, suggesting that her travels may have taken her on a round tour of Vancouver Island.

To Dr. Carl, who has taken an interest in the habits of the killer-whale for some years past, her appearance has been a blessing since she is easily identifiable by reason of her unusual color. She is the first albino killer-whale the museum director has heard of here.

In her Sunday appearance, the whale attracted lots of attention. Bathers splashed in the direction of the place where she, and three or four other killer-whales were disputing themselves.

A nearby sailboat, which was heading into centre of the herd, happily unaware of the animals' presence, came quickly about on sighting them and sailed off for safer waters while the killer-whales continued their diligent search for the marine delicacies found in the shallow waters off the beach.

Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Harry Sanders, mother of Byrne Hope Sanders, editor of Chatelaine Magazine and former director of Consumer Branch, Wartime Prices and Trade Board, died suddenly on Galiano Island Thursday, while holidaying there with her husband, Mrs. Sanders came from Ontario in the spring of 1944 to make her home with a son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Carney, 3579 Quadra Street. The body came by launch to Sidney and is now at Sands' Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Former Victoria Ship Sold

The former luxury yacht Sans Peur, once owned by the Duke of Sutherland, which served with the Royal Canadian Navy during the war, was recently sold by the Ship Sales Division of War Assets Corporation in Montreal. She was purchased by the Maple Leaf Steamship Co. Ltd. of Montreal. The Sans Peur was here at the outbreak of war and was immediately turned over by the Duke of Sutherland to the Canadian Navy. For some time she was operated here on coastal patrol and later was sent to Halifax, N.S.

Outstanding Term, Says Director As Summer School Draws To Close

"This has been a most outstanding term," Harold P. Johns, director of the B.C. Summer School of Education, said today.

Summer school commenced July 2 and winds up its five-week schedule tomorrow when the teacher students write examinations.

The school is actually a teacher-training institution of the provincial government's department of education. This year marks the 34th session that the school has operated.

The students attending this year's summer school fall into four classifications. Teachers who are employed on temporary certificates who are seeking a permanent certificate, teachers who are employed on permanent certificates who seek specialist certificates, teachers who wish merely to revitalize their teaching techniques, and physical training instructors who seek instruction on new techniques and drills.

All but the latter group attend sessions in Victoria. The physical training instructors take their courses in Vancouver where there is ample gym accommodation. This year, the school is not operated strictly for teachers. At Vancouver, with the gym instructors from the schools, are trainers and instructors from Pro-Rec groups, Y.M.C.A. clubs and service club projects.

About 300 have been attending last week for which the school was divided into four houses. House North took the honors of the event.

Bowling has been a great attraction with 28 five-man teams taking part in league competition. Games were played three times a week.

Many of the teachers have availed themselves of the nearby golf courses, while others attended swimming sessions at the Crystal Garden.

Citizen Hurt By Juvenile 'Prank'

Police are on the lookout for children in the city who are endangering the safety of the public in actions they probably put in the category of a "prank."

Robert Moffatt, 419 St. Charles Street, was one of the first to suffer injury from a prank early Sunday morning. He fell down a manhole on Chandler Avenue near St. Charles Street and scraped his left leg. In response to his complaint, Constables Norman Bath and Bob Mair attended and replaced two more manhole covers and a sewer drain cover on the north side of Chandler Avenue between St. Charles Street and Richmond Avenue.

Another report reaching police yesterday was that eight to 10 cars on Hollywood Crescent had deflated tires. There was also a report of a 22 calibre rifle being fired at the foot of Style Street and one of the bullets lodged in the engine of a boat owned by D. Keir, 602 Craigflower Road.

Nothing To Stop U.S. Boats Fishing Outside Limit Here

There is nothing which can be done about Canadian fishermen's complaints of U.S. fishing vessels salmon-trolling outside the three-mile limit on Vancouver Island's west coast, according to a statement by George J. Alexander, deputy minister of the B.C. Fisheries Department.

Mr. Alexander believed reports of as many as 150 U.S. vessels operating outside the limit were "very foolish" and pointed out that U.S. boats, or any others, were allowed to fish off-shore from B.C. as long as they observed the limit.

Reports were that if the U.S. boats were not there, Canadian fishermen's catches would go up 50 to 100 per cent.

H. H. England will speak of "Begonia Culture" at the meeting of the Oak Bay Community Garden Club Thursday at 8 in Oak Bay Community Hall.

Lions Convention Delegates Pay Visit To Victoria

PRESIDENT F. W. SMITH, Stanley G. Fowler of St. Catharines, Ont., Canadian president of Lions International, was among a group of 87 delegates to the 30th annual convention of Lions, held in San Francisco, July 28 to 31, who spent Sunday in Victoria as guests of the Victoria Lions Club.

More than 200 members of Lions International from clubs throughout central, eastern and southern states of the U.S. arrived Saturday.

Fred W. Smith of Ventura, Calif., was advanced by unanimous vote, from the first vice-presidency to the presidency of the International Association of Lions Clubs, at the San Francisco convention.

"I feel confident that you in this great audience today, representing as you do, the business and professional people of 19 nations, will stand solidly behind the program of world peace, which your association has adopted and that you will act as one, in advocating that your respective governments take a definite stand against any nation or anyone who would disrupt the peace of the world," Mr. Smith said on taking office.

A native of Alamosa, Col., Mr. Smith is a charter member of the Ventura Lions Club, formed in 1923. He was elected a member of the board of directors of Lions International at the International Convention in Havana in 1940, and since that time has held the offices of third, second and first vice-president of the association.

Victoria Lions Club took their visitors for a sightseeing trip Sunday morning and luncheon at The Ranch at Cordova Bay. A picnic was held in the afternoon at the Dominion Experimental Station, Saanichton.

Harold E. Curran of Syracuse, New York, international director-elect and Ernest Gabery of Hull, P.Q., international Canadian councillor, were among the visitors.

George Cooper, Burnside Road, pleaded guilty in a special session of Saanich police court at Royal Oak this morning to assaulting Jessie Houston Saturday night and occasioning her actual bodily harm and was fined $100, or in default, six months in jail, by J. R. Saunders, J.P. The charge arose from trouble in a car at Mount Douglas, Cpl. Jack Hamilton told the court in giving the circumstances.

Fleet Open To Public Inspection

Thousands of Victorians and many out-of-town visitors are expected to visit Canadian warships, including H.M.S. Kenya, which have been opened to the public in connection with Navy Week which started today. The fleet, berthed at H.M.C.S. Naden, will be open for inspection at 1.30 tomorrow afternoon.

A sunset ceremony in front of the Parliament Buildings will be held this evening at 8. A platoon of seamen, including the Naden Band, will participate in the ceremony. At 9 a dance is being held at the Prince Robert House for British and Canadian Seamen.

On Tuesday seamen from both Canadian and British warships will participate in a parade through downtown streets. At 1 a cricket match will be held between a R.C.N. team and H.M.S. Kenya at Naden.

28 Bicycles Awaiting Owners

Boys who have reported theft of their bicycles and have not yet heard of their recovery, are asked by Chief of Police John A. McLellan to attend at the city police station and look over the assortment of 28 unregistered, or un-censed, bikes that are lodged in the recovery shed.

Owing to there being no identification as to owners, police have been unable to notify persons that their machines have been recovered. The shed has reached its maximum of capacity.

Jan Cherniavsky Concludes Series At Summer School

Jan Cherniavsky, pianist of the renowned brother team of piano and cello, played brilliantly at the Victoria High School this morning to bring the concert series of the 34th B.C. Summer School of Education to a fitting close.

In his opening group, Mr. Cherniavsky played "Sonata," by Scarlatti, "Minuetto Scherzando," by Stavenhagen and "Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue," by Bach. All three of these compositions presented passages requiring delicate fingering in which the Cherniavsky artistry was seen.

Contrasting to his opening group was the second group of selections by the French-master, Debussy. "Dance of the Delphs," "Minstrels" and "Fireworks" were included. The performer gave a fine interpretation of these works.

As his third group, Mr. Cherniavsky played "Nocturne," two studies and "Scherzo," by Chopin. This group seemed most popular with the large audience of teachers and Victoria music-lovers.

Rounds of applause recalled the artist to the stage where he gave as an encore his own composition, "Music Box."

The concert series has been a

Makes Asdic Sweeps For Missing Plane

H.M.C.S. Antigonish began asdic sweeps today off Prevost Island where two amateur underwater draggers reported last week they had snagged what they believed was the wreck of the Trans-Canada Air Lines plane, missing since April 29 with 15 persons aboard.

Naval headquarters said divers would be sent down to comb the sea bottom if any indication of the wreck is found.

Prevost Island is about 50 miles south of Vancouver in Georgia Strait.

Very important part of this year's summer school. During the past five weeks, 13 concerts have been presented, bringing both local and world-known artists to the school.

City Far Ahead In Week's Building

The city issued more building permits during the past week than the three outlying municipalities put together, with a total of 38 permits for a value of $101,925.

These included three houses, a duplex, a store, a $25,000 storage warehouse and $12,600 electrical work for the Sidney Roofing and Paper Plant.

Saanich issued 17 permits for a total value of $39,075, including seven dwellings for a total value of $34,000.

In Oak Bay only two permits were issued for a total value of $1,150, both for conversion work.

Only two permits were issued this week in Esquimalt also for a total value of $275, involving minor repair work.

A building permit has been issued to K. Michelburg to build a five-room house at 2824 Graham Street, $6,500.

B.C. Seeks Damages For Shot Cougar Dog

Damages of $2,500 for loss of a B.C. government cougar dog are being sought from two Abbotford men through legal action instituted by Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer, it is reported at the Legislative Buildings.

It is alleged the defendants, Steve and Mike Karafa, shot and killed the dog near their home town last year when the dog was tracking cougar with a provincial game warden. For loss of the dog, damages of $1,500 are being sought, and for loss of work and services, $1,000.

There were 25,994 telephones in Victoria at July 1 as compared with 25,914 at June 1, according to a statement of development issued by the British Columbia Telephone Company. There were 24,953 telephones in Victoria at Jan. 1 this year, as compared with 23,894 at Jan. 1, 1946.

Premier Believes Labor Behind B.C.'s Support Of Bill 39

Premier John Hart today stated he believed labor men in general agreed with the provincial government's determination to stand by the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act.

There might be one or two minor amendments to certain portions of the act, commonly known as Bill 39, he said, but none which would affect the principle of the act.

He pledged that the B.C. government would stand by the I.C.A. Act, and said he believed it to be a fair one.

He would make no further statement regarding the criticisms by certain elements among the labor ranks. "I don't want to get involved in any dispute with labor," he said.

As he had not been officially informed of the comment of Nanaimo Magistrate L. Beevor-Potts, who tried the striking Nanaimo laundry workers in the first court test of the new act's strength, that the act was cumbersome, the Premier said he would not reply to the magistrate.

Saanich municipal council has requested the city to install a hydrant off the city's eight-inch main near the Veterans' Hospital for fire protection of the hospital, with the municipality paying a rental for use of the hydrant.

Third Successive Monday Retreat

NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks turned downward in today's market, but dealings were among the slowest of the last month. It was the third successive Monday retreat.
With bullish news lacking, light offerings continued from the start. While a few plus marks appeared now and then, losses of fractions to two or more points were numerous near the close. Steels, motors, rails and rubbers softened.
Canadian issues were weak at noon; Canadian Pacific fell 1/2. Distillers Seagrams and Hiram Walker dropped 1/4 each. Dome Mines was unchanged.

Special Budget May Follow Attlee Plan To Meet Crisis

By FRASER WIGHTON
LONDON (Reuter)—The government is prepared to introduce a special autumn budget to counteract any inflationary dangers arising from the measures it will announce Wednesday to meet Britain's present economic crisis, it was learned today.
The most serious problem may come from the increased spending powers of workers in industries whose production is to be stepped up.
Prime Minister Attlee had a preliminary meeting today with the financial group of cabinet members.
A special meeting of the defence committee, which includes Britain's service chiefs, was also held to deal with the curtailment of service manpower. This is one of the principal cuts which the government intends to make to stabilize the national economy through boosting exports and restricting imports.
Reports of today's conferences will be placed before the full cabinet Tuesday. It will approve the government's scheme and Attlee's speech in the House of Commons the following day.

the non-essential trades into top-priority industries. The government will take powers to extend its present control over labor.

The government still possesses wartime powers of control of manpower in the mining and agricultural industries. Operatives in these industries may move from one firm to another, but not out of the industry.

This machinery of control now will be extended to cover a large number of essential trades.

Crowds See Drill Team Parading For Pictures

Members of the Victoria Girls' Drill Team paraded in front of the B.C. Parliament Buildings Sunday morning to have publicity pictures taken for the Montreal Standard.

Although their parade was in no way a public appearance, 600 tourists and amateur photographers were attracted to the scene.

"I've never seen so many cameras in my life," commented Norman Foster, founder and trainer of the team.

The girls posed on the steps of the Parliament Buildings, on the lawns and later aboard the Ms. Chinook.
